FOREWORD

The little old leprechaun on our front cover seems to be napping -- but don't let the hat over his eyes fool you: he is as alert as a watchdog, and only those who have some business there can approach the pot of gold he guards at the end of the rainbow.

For a long time now, we have been following the promise of this particular rainbow -- the purple and gold of Vocational -- hoping to find -- What? hard, cold cash? -- the fulfillment of our dreams? Maybe the leprechaun will let us have just one coin -- one coin to keep and treasure, or to re-invest in another venture. Well, we have just started out, and who knows how many rainbows we'll follow, using our trained hands, or how many coins the leprechaun will let us pluck from the pot?

ADMINISTRATION

As you'll see when you turn this page, sometimes a lot of steam gets into our rainbow. Come to think of it, rainbows couldn't exist without some kind of moisture ----- and really, the teachers we remember (so we've heard) are the ones who have cared enough to "get up steam": those who told us frankly when our efforts weren't worth a nickel, or clapped us on the broadening shoulder blades when we deserved it.

All For Fun . . .

NOT SANTA'S HELPERS, but our teachers in disguise!

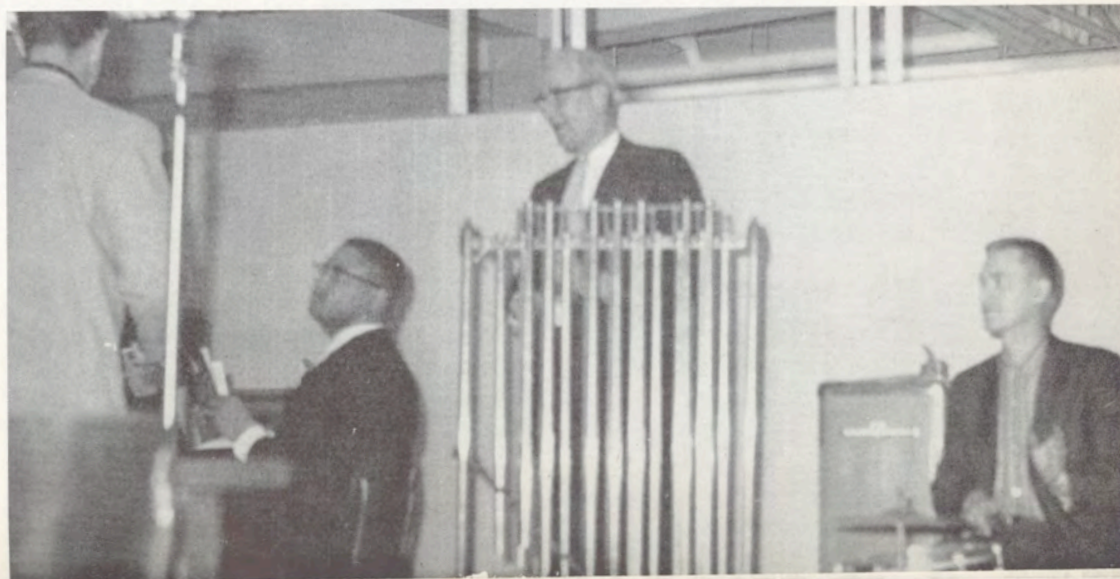

Enjoying themselves at the Faculty Christmas Party are Miss Bernice Eich, Miss Stella Sorum, Mrs. Sarah Jane Lemke, Mrs. Martha Lund, Miss Dean Kean, Mrs. Katherine Rice, Mrs. Marian Kelley, and Miss Carol Hauger.

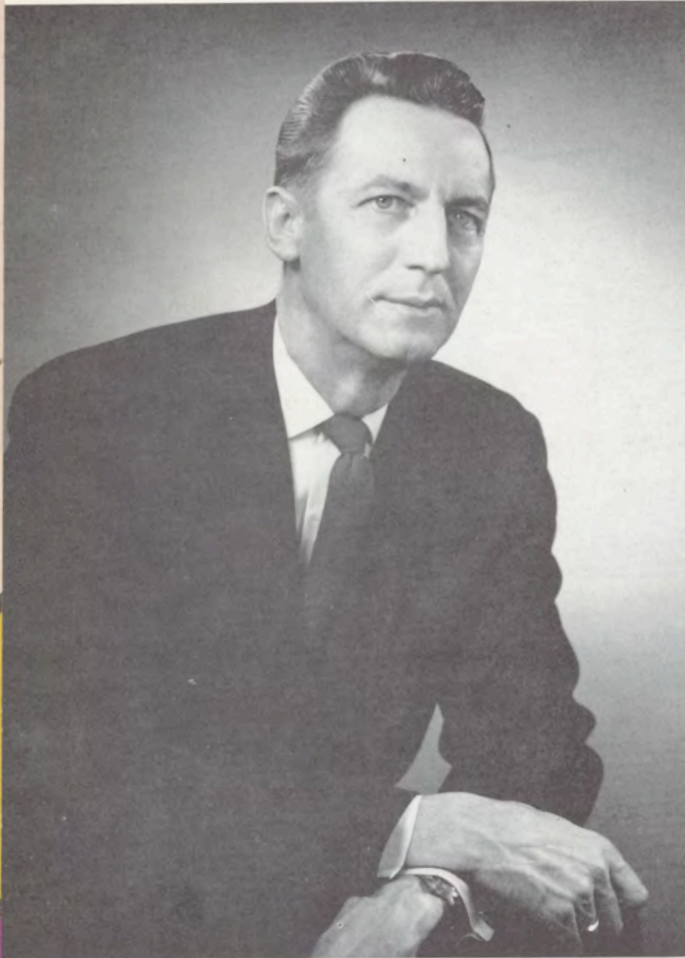

BEFORE GETTING down to serious business at a Staff Meeting, there are better things to be had! Mrs. Caroline Ireland and Mrs. Dorothy Glennly serve refreshments to Mrs. Eleanor Byrne, Mr. Jerry Murphy, Mr. Richard Thole, Mr. John Peyla, and Mr. Harold Tietz.

DO-IT-YOURSELF entertainment — and music couldn't be better!

Mr. William Brown, Mr. Henry Arent, and Mr. Robert Hanson blend their talents in accompanying Mr. Wallace Nelson, far left, at the Christmas Party.

A Day in the Life of Our Principal

WE UNDERSTAND THAT RAINBOWS do not appear unless certain conditions exist: there must be particles of moisture in the air to act as prisms receiving the rays of the sun.

Rather than rely on the whimsy of the leprechaun, with his vague promises of some unearned reward at the end of the rainbow, we should realize the conditions which must exist before we can qualify for even a part of the proverbial "Pot of Gold." The lasting reward is reserved for those who find it through day-by-day accomplishments.

Let us not be fooled by the something-for-nothing promises which ring in our ears. Let us instead wake up and face reality for what it is, and strive for a brighter tomorrow by making the most of our capabilities today.—NORMAN A. JENSEN, Principal

A SCHOOL ADMINISTRATOR could easily be three people as the small sample of Mr. Jensen's "Day" shows here.

From Top to Bottom, and Right to Left Below: (1) Mr. Jensen confers daily with Chief Engineer, Mr. Johnson; (2) The daily correspondence, bulletins, and heavy paper work are handled by his secretary, Mrs. Peters; (3) His voice is a familiar sound over our P.A. system; (4) He meets with Betty Shook, Senior, concerning a Nat'l Honor Society program; (5) The telephone—a parent perhaps?—interrupts an interview; (6) A pause in the day's occupation—enjoying a school basketball game at the auditorium with Mr. Hendrickson and Mr. Sanford; (7) Mr. Jensen squires a number of Japanese scholars—one of the many civic and foreign groups who visited our school; (8) Swedish Hospital student nurse, June Sneva, receives her diploma while Mrs. Sears, Mrs. Treece, and Miss Awes smile congratulations; (9) The end of our principal's school day might find him speaking to a Staff Meeting where educational and administrative problems are discussed.

WE HAVE ALL HEARD of the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, but there are many who never find it.

As we strive to attain this goal or that goal—one that glitters or one that lies in distant realms—we lose sight of the simple things that are close to us. To be sure, money and position are important in our lives, but our gold, most often, comes from the practice of friendliness, sincerity, generosity, dependability, courtesy, honesty, and helpfulness in our association with others. These are the things that tend to build character in the individual and lend stability and reliability to his conduct.

As we so live, thus shall we count our gold.

—WILFRED L. MCGIMPSEY
Assistant Principal

There's Little Difference Between Night and Day .

The approximately 9,000 people who attend Evening School classes are also striving to attain their goal in life. Many of them were led astray from the path toward the rainbow by their necessity to secure jobs. But through this means of education they are able to work and gain valuable knowledge and training. Others are interested in improving and widening their range of skills.

For many of these adults, Evening School is another chance at reaching that "Pot of Gold."

HAPPILY these teachers separate themselves from the noise and hubbub of the school and enjoy a free period sipping coffee and chatting with one another.

... Service Friends

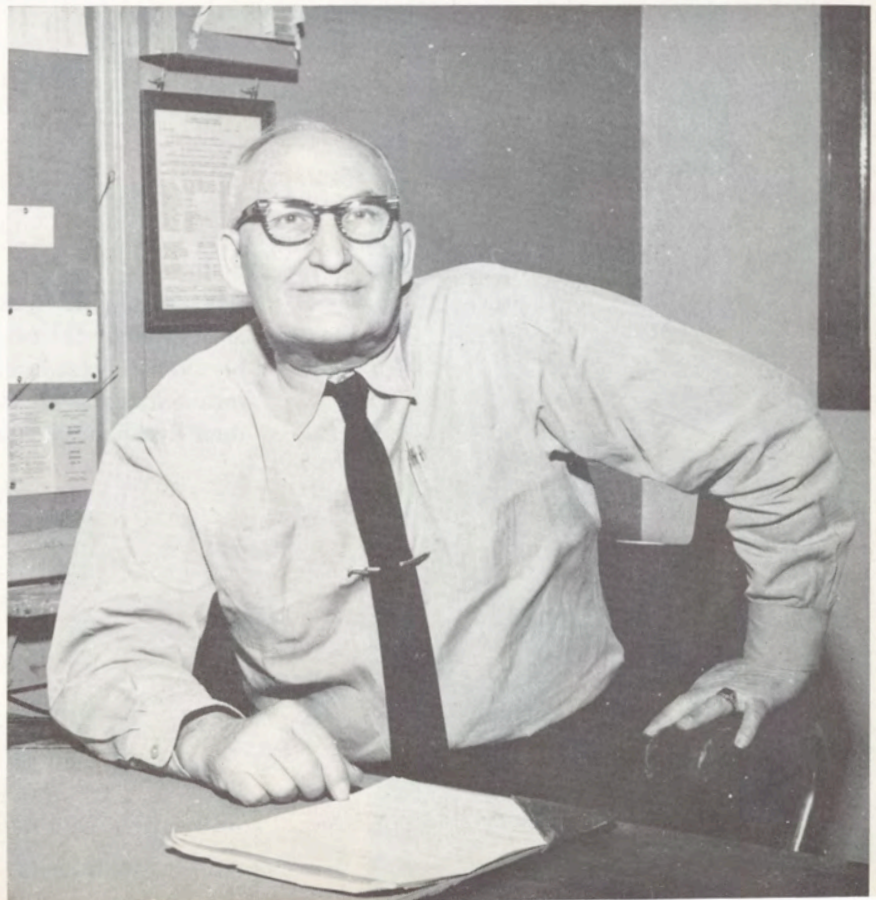

A Farewell . . .

Mr. Charles Johnson, our Head Engineer

Mr. Johnson gave faithful service to the Board of Education for thirty-five years. Between the time when he began his career at the "Old Voc" and now, Mr. Johnson has worked at several other Minneapolis city schools.

Mr. Johnson found the students "very likeable and his stay here a pleasure, with some headaches, of course." He is looking forward to spending much of his time in the future living on a farm in Northern Minnesota.

The school staff and all the students are going to miss this efficient man who has been so much a part of our school.

“THE RAINBOW COMES AND GOES—”

—from Intimations of Immortality,

—William Wordsworth

MR. HILMER NORDSTROM taught Electricity at Vocational for seventeen years, and previous to that he taught at Nokomis Junior High School. Mr. Nordstrom was a hard worker and a sincere gentleman, and expected his boys to be the same. Those who were lucky enough to have been in his classroom honor his memory.

Passed Away June 7, 1958

In Memoriam . . .

MR. WALTER MACIOSEK taught Upholstery at Vocational for twenty years, and in those years his practical guidance and kindly common sense meant much to all the boys who are now earning their livelihood in this trade.

SCHOOL LIFE

Ever heard of adding color to the rainbow? Well, we did: what was more colorful than the "Teahouse of the August Moon" with its breath-taking stage sets and its happy Okinawan lingo? Or our Christmas show, with its skating carolers? And then there were all the ambitious souls who decorated most of our homerooms, adding color to the holidays. And the bright, shining gold of a spiritual message, sensitively acted, shone through the bare boards of "Our Town". Add Color? Of course we did, even if we were just the Eyes and Ears and Minds that responded to the lovely colors glowing forth from these, as well as from all kinds of unexpected places in School Life.

Student Council leads the way . . .

THE STUDENT COUNCIL, here shown at one of their busy meetings, is a worthwhile organization and a source of many achievements which are of service to the students and the school. Among many subjects discussed and acted upon by the group in the past year was the driving age problem. Some accomplishments this past year were—buying crowns for the King and Queen; sponsoring the Shoe Shine, the Booster Button, the second skating party; and buying the Craftsman and Tradewind staffs a camera.

The National Honor Society . . .

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY was organized at Vocational in 1956 by students and faculty who felt that we have even more reason for establishing such an organization than other high schools, since good students here must meet, not only the requirements for outstanding leadership, scholarship, and character, but for outstanding merit in their trades.

This year with Mr. McGimpsey and Mrs. Kenyon as chief advisers, eleven seniors and eight juniors were accepted in addition to the nine members of last year.

Students of the Month receive honors . . .

"Students of the Month"

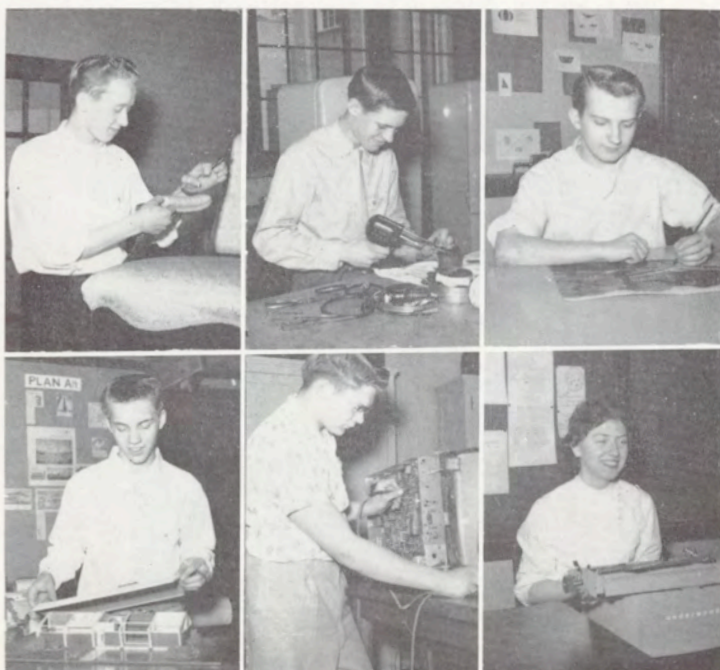

THE STORY of this new feature of our school life begins a year ago in a staff meeting during which Mr. Kenneth Thompson proposed that we ought to recognize outstanding students in some tangible way. These "Students of the Month" displays, housed for a month each in the lobby display cases, have been one of the many projects of Mr. Thompson's art classes, and have proved to be most popular. Each of the nine students pictured on this page was elected by a special committee of five academic and five trade teachers.

DELORES KIVI: Cosmetology Department.

RON HAMANN: Printing Department.

BARBARA LARSON: Pre-Nursing Department.

MANFORD LUNDBERG: Upholstering Department.

BILL MILLER: Electricity Department.

CHARLES THAYER: Art Department.

MELVIN NISKA: Architectural Drafting Department.

DAVID KNEISZLER: Radio and Television Department.

Those who serve are the future's . . .

THE SERVICE CLUB this year was a very large group. It consisted of thirty-four Seniors and twenty-three Juniors. The members support the school by guiding visitors and ushering at our various stage productions. Many of us first became acquainted with the club the first day we entered Vocational, as it is the service club's job every year to show the confused Sophomore class where to go. They are a busy group and it is their responsibility to keep up their grades, because they have to be taken out of class many times in order to fulfill their duties.

Last December 2, 1958, the Betty Crocker Test was given here at Vocational in room 218. Thirty-one senior girls were tested on their ability as homemakers. The test covered such subjects as how to set a table; select, purchase, and prepare food; purchase clothing; deal with home problems; practice good American citizenship, and the like.

THE WINNER from Vocational shown here is Carole Gacek of the Cosmetology Department. She will go on to compete in the city-wide test. The winner of that test will go on to a State and then a National test.

THE TEAROOM here at Vocational has always been a busy spot. The students taking Restaurant and Hotel Training serve many outside business people, visitors, and teachers. Occasionally you can even find students eating here, also—even though their usual habitat is the Student Lunchroom in the basement.

Learning by reading . . .

Here, Mrs. MARIAN KELLEY is showing Jim Pyka and Jerry Anderson the display of new library books.

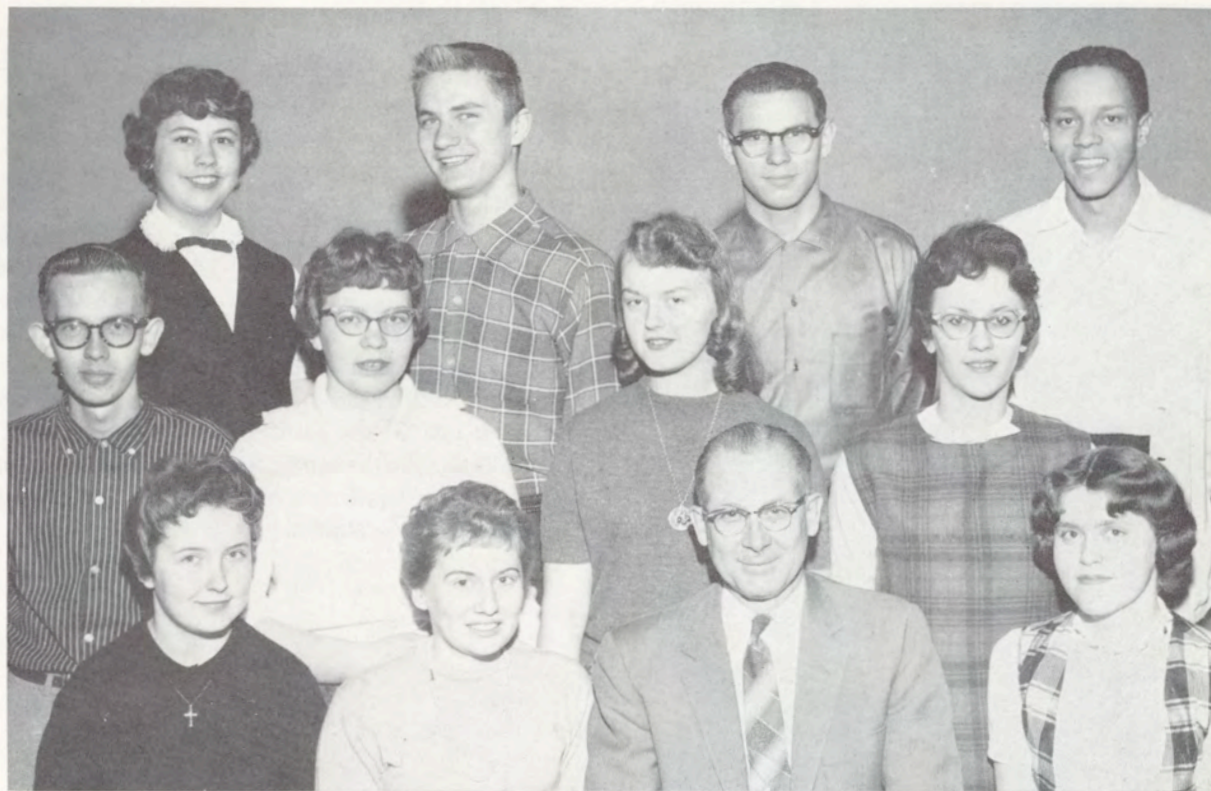

"FIRST COME—FIRST SERVED"
Students arrived before 7:45 to get the books they wanted as a result of the browsing they had done in the library during Book Week.

DUANE STOLP is finishing his Book Week display with Dennis Martin and Pat Gorzycki helping.

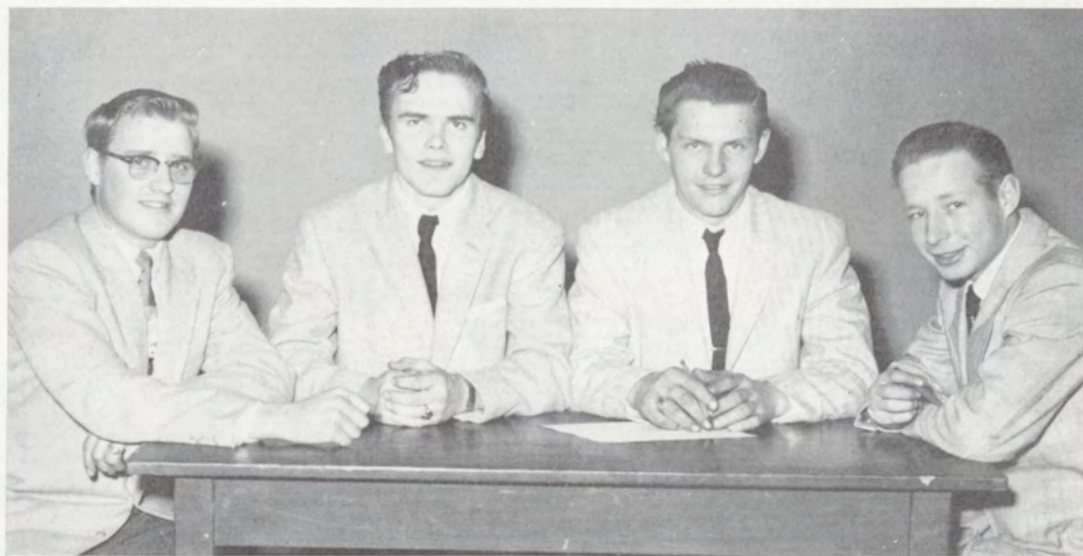

THE NATIONAL BOOK WEEK slogan this year was Explore With Books. The Senior Art Department set up the displays to go with the slogan. Each year our library adds to its excellent selection books of such great variety that every high school student should be able to find reading for enjoyment as well as for technical advancement. The selection of these books is made by Mrs. Kelley and Mrs. Martha Lund on the basis of an approval list sent to the library. The books are ordered in the spring and received in the summer, and each succeeding autumn finds our librarians ready to meet the reading needs of each one of us.

. . . and improving our skills

THE CAMERA CLUB under the direction of Mr. Albert Oster, is a busy club, meeting every Thursday night in room 300. They learn to use the school's cameras and develop all their own pictures. Members are, Bottom Row: Darlene Haugen, Diane Champagne, Mr. Oster, Ruth Rorvig. Second Row: Dennis Busch, Betty Shook, Sharon Jackman, Sharon Thielen. Top Row: Judy Rivet, David Burbank, Pat Gorzycki, Reginald Commodore.

No-Acs is a club sponsored by the Greater Minneapolis Safety Council. Its purpose is to promote safe driving among teen-agers. To be eligible for membership one must be in a senior high school and have—just as the club's name suggests—a record of no accidents. Harland Urevig, student from the Auto Mechanics Department, is in charge of the club. Mr. Royalston Jennings is acting teacher in charge. Pictured from left to right are Francis Wines, Bob Hanson, Roy Randall, and Harland Urevig.

Active Vocationalites reach out . . .

MR. CLARENCE BOOTH, Machine Shop teacher, is shown here with the award he received from the Big Brothers Incorporation. The purpose of this incorporation is to befriend boys under sixteen years of age who need help of various kinds, and for various reasons. The Big Brother gives them guidance and a clean start in life, with a healthy outlook toward the future. Mr. Booth has been a Big Brother for fifteen years and during that time he has "brothered" six boys. Four of these were graduates of Vocational.

MR. NORMAN JENSEN, Principal, is talking to members of the Parent-Teacher-Student Association Committee, who planned and prepared the meetings for this year. This is the second year Voc has had a P.T.S.A., and it is the hope of these committees that the P.T.S.A. will "catch on" as it has in the community schools, for the two points of the triangle (the student and the teacher) are really incomplete without the third—the parent.

... into the community

1959 OPEN HOUSE—Above is the only flash of our Open House program that we have room for in this year's Tradewind, as our book went to press the next day. We had thousands of visitors, who trudged through the huge and interesting building, visiting displays and teachers and programs on every floor.

THRIFT LUNCHEON—In the above picture are Mr. Gerald Prigge and some of our thriftiest students. The Farmers and Mechanics Bank hosted Minneapolis students at a special luncheon given in recognition of the fact that they had never missed a school banking day.

Mr. Prigge, who advises the Vocational banking operation, was of course also an honored guest. The eight students who attended are Jeffery Borneman, John Dorscher, Richard Dave, Jim Eagles, Diane Gurry, Judy Jensen, Delores Pettis, and Leon Depple.

Music—all enjoy . . .

THE VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL BAND. Because of their love for music, the band has provided entertainment at many of our school functions. Here they are, warming up at the civic auditorium on Voc's night. "Voc's night" means it was their turn to provide all participating schools with appropriate music at the games.

BESIDES PLAYING at the games, the band adds "steam" to all of our programs. This is the second year the band has enjoyed being under the direction of Mr. Henry Arent, who formerly taught tailoring in our school. Mr. Arent plays many different instruments, but his favorite seems to be the big bass.

REMEMBER THE TIMES you've walked past 405 about 8:00 in the morning and heard music coming from the room? Well, that was the choir practicing for one of their many performances. Every possible opportunity found the choir practicing in the mornings, during homeroom periods; they even practiced while waiting to have their picture taken for the Tradewind. They added variety to some of the programs, and beauty to others. During the week before Christmas they filled the halls with the singing of carols besides singing at the Christmas program. At the time the Tradewind went to press, they and the Band were planning a joint spring program which included madrigals and barbershop quartets, as well as the standard type of repertoire. They are under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Kwakernaat.

Leg Work, Head Work, Art Work, and Copy Work . . .

PRODUCING THE SCHOOL ANNUAL is one of the major activities of the Senior Class. The eighteen members of the staff have worked hard this past year. Here they are pictured in room 411 just before the end of the first period, which is never long enough for all the work which has to be done.

THE BOYS PICTURED here are working on the covers of our 1959 yearbook. They are under the direction of Mr. Robert Boyer who is in charge of Bookbinding.

THE TRADEWIND STAFF wishes to acknowledge the assistance they received from the following firms and individuals in producing the 1959 yearbook. THE LUND PRESS, INC., Mr. Abner Carlson; THE BUREAU OF ENGRAVING, Mr. Arthur Segal; THE HAGA STUDIOS, Mr. Gordon Haga; THE VOCATIONAL BINDERY, Mr. Robert Boyer; THE VOCATIONAL OFFSET PRINTING, Mr. Robert Hanson.

The Fifty-niner's—a hardworking Craftsman Staff

OUR SCHOOL NEWSPAPER—Under the direction of Miss Mildred Fisk, adviser, Melvin Niska, editor of the Craftsman, works hard with the other nineteen members of the staff. They turned out a paper about every two weeks.

Vocational's Skater's night at the Arena

THE STUDENTS ABOVE are preparing to skate all night. They are Dan Miller, Bruce Sharmer (putting on Carren Custer's skates), Karen Holm, and Grace Ulberg.

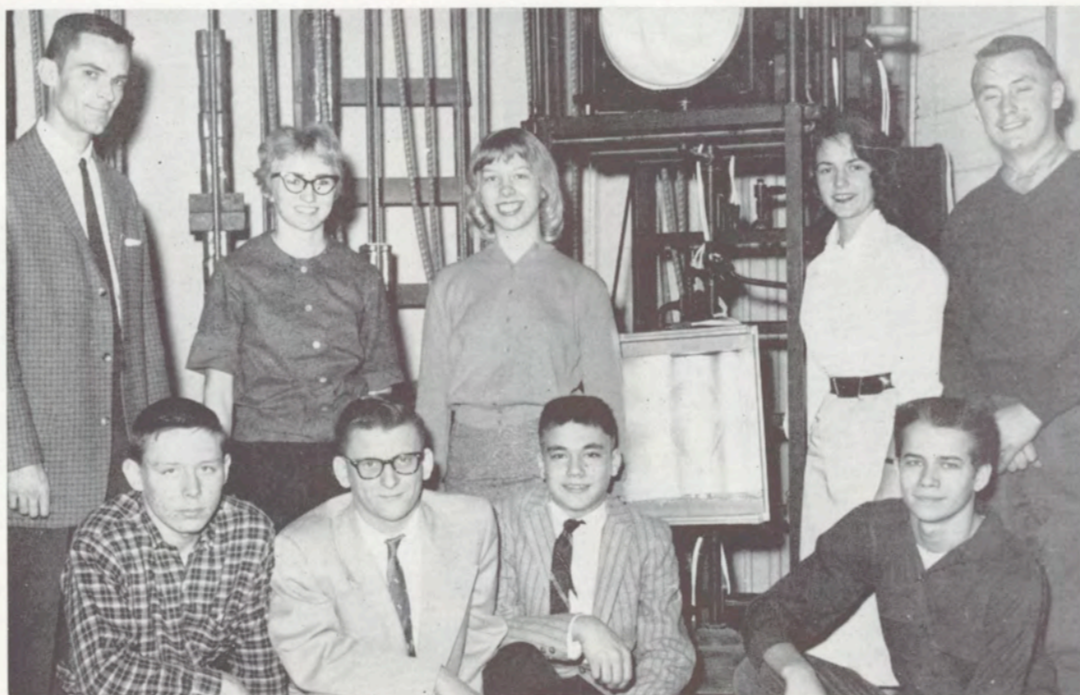

DICK HORBUL (middle) should have had the assistance of Connie Zabloski (left) and Jackie Dupay (right) when he played hockey this past season.

IN FEBRUARY, Vocational held its second ice-skating party of the year at the Minneapolis Arena. Mr. Harry Brown started a mixer which called for the skaters to start in pairs, go on into groups of fours, eights, sixteens and so on. This kept up until only the very best skaters weren't tired. Then the students were left to skate at their own tempo, while others took time to catch their breath. The evening was full of fun for those who attended.

THE EASTER STORY was reverently conceived and presented by a large cast of players under the direction of Mr. Whiteley. The lights, settings, and costumes were as usual expertly handled, and the audience was inspired by the beauty of the performance.

PERSONNEL FROM THE ARMED FORCES are seen here being served coffee and pastry after their program. The purpose of the program was to educate students concerning their obligations of serving in the Armed Forces. Mr. Harold Tietz, second from right, is their host.

VOCATIONAL OFFERS a very fine Nurses Training program. These nurses have completed their training at the Swedish Hospital. Their training at the hospital follows their inductive course here at Vocational in the Pre-Nursing Department.

1300 See "Teahouse of the August Moon" . . .

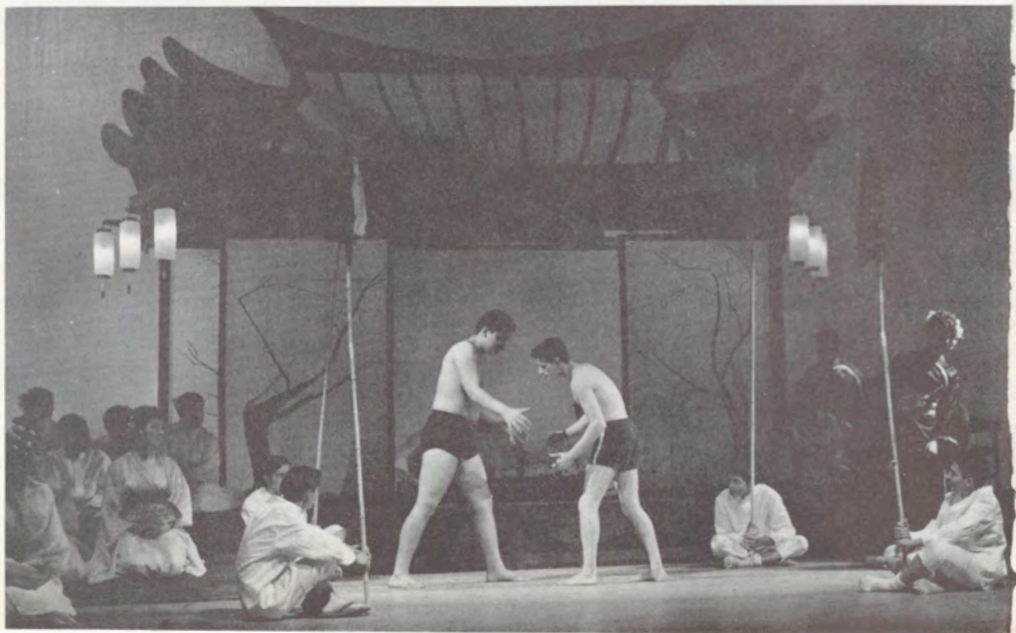

THE WOMEN of Tobiki Village are trying to get something across to Captain Fisby (Emil Guzik) by means of Sakini (Duane Howe), the Okinawan interpreter from whose charming narrative the play derives most of its personality.

LOTUS BLOSSOM (Rae Marie Walz) "helps" the struggling Captain Fisby (Emil Guzik) to get "dressed"—although the audience was in some doubt as to whether that was the object of the struggle.

THIS SCENE, in the Teahouse, is one of the most colorful of the play. Bert Pendleton and Jim Zitek are wrestling, as most of the cast cheer them on.

THE TWO STUDENT DIRECTORS of "Teahouse of the August Moon," Betty Johnson and Barb Holmstrom (left), never thought washing a goat would be one of their many jobs. Pinky, the borrowed goat, plays the part of Lady Astor in the play. Lady Astor's fragrance was noticeable, in spite of the bath, as far back as the tenth row center.

TAKING PLACE IN AN OKINAWAN VILLAGE, "Teahouse" was an especially colorful and scenic play. Besides having a goat, we also borrowed a jeep from the 47th Division Artillery of the Minnesota National Guard. The play was a huge success under the direction of Mr. Larry Whiteley.

CAST OF CHARACTERS—Sakini, Duane Howe; Sergeant Gregovich, Tom Peterson; Colonel Purdy III, Ron Legg; Old Woman, Carol Boyce; Old Woman's Daughter, Pat Elsberry; The Daughter's Children, Lloyd Porter; Grancine Boyce, JoAnn Traczyk; Lady Astor, Pinky; Ancient Man, Dennis Busch; Mr. Hokaida, Bert Pendleton; Mr. Omura, Gerald Olson; Mr. Sumata, Phil Porter; Mr. Sumata's Father, Tom Klaesges; Mr. Seiko, Jim Zitek; Miss Higa Jiga, Violet Kilbo; Mr. Keora, Roger Timm; Mr. Oshira, Floyd Stobe; Lotus Blossom, Rae Marie Walz; Captain Mclean, Dave Burbank; Ladies' League for Democratic Action, JoAnn Lake, Barb Collins, Judi Wendt; Villagers, Dave Toft, Chuck Thayer, John Buckland, Lillian Traczyk, Sandra Hoffman, Patty Pertinen, Arnold Scheel.

This scene shows Dave Burbank testing the village's homemade brandy on the goat. Supposedly they figured if the goat lived, the soldiers would, too.

There's No Business like . . .

THE TWO PICTURES above represent last spring's Musical Comedy, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," directed by Mr. Robert Turner. The play concerned the teen-age escapades of two young ladies on an ocean voyage. They meet two nice young doctors and from that moment on, the plot becomes a vehicle which threads together the many entertaining talents of a huge cast, who thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

THE CHRISTMAS PROGRAM this year was on the skit order, with Charlotte Novatney playing an elf and Sharon Preese a little night-gowned, bare-footed girl. Charlotte leads Sharon through a Christmas dream. Here the elf is showing Sharon a Choir singing hymns.

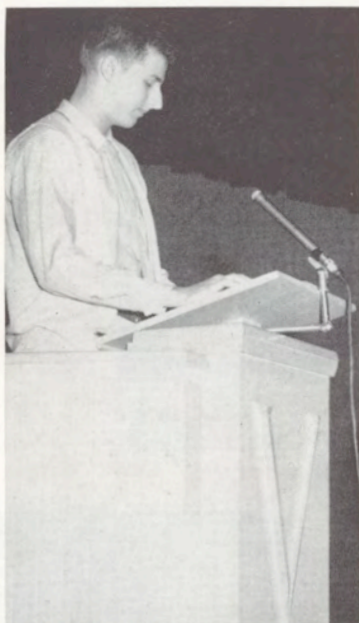

Still to the accompaniment of music, Sharon next sees Santa Claus, played by Chris Pedersen. Chris, an important member of the stage crew, this time ventured beyond the ropes and lights backstage, for a different view of the audience from that which is usually afforded there.

AND FINALLY THE GRAND FINALE, with the entire cast in a Christmas Card-like appearance of a skating scene. Program directors were Mr. Larry Whiteley, Mrs. Elsie Kwakkernaat, and Mr. Henry Arent.

A Day to Remember . . .

SURPRISING PEPFEST—This was probably our most memorable pepfest of the year. It was filled with surprises for all. Here Dick Horbul is announcing the members of one of the many teams that were introduced. The Flag Twirlers and Pom Pon girls added color to the program by forming a "V" on stage with Kathy Barney twirling a baton in the center.

... for all concerned

MR. CLARENCE BOOTH was really surprised when Ed Osfar came out and interrupted his "Emcee" comments with compliments and finally presented him with a letter sweater. The sweater was in appreciation of the many years he has supported the teams with his school spirit at the games and pep fests.

Mr. Booth is proudly showing the admiring cheerleaders his new sweater.

Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" . . .

ONE OF THE THEATRE'S finest pieces of Americana was presented as an all-school play on our stage this season, under the direction of Mr. Robert Turner. Famous for its "bare stage" and lack of all but the most essential stage props, the play reminds us that awareness of each living moment produces our only happiness, since we cannot relive life's precious experiences. As a cynic would put it—"We don't appreciate the water till the well has run dry."

In the first act, the history of "Our Town," Grovers' Corners, New Hampshire, and something of the character of its citizens is genially outlined by Emil Guzik, the Stage Manager. Then he introduces the Gibbs and Webb families, who live in substantial homes of the early 1900's.

The second act concerns the love affair between young George Gibbs and Emily Webb, and culminates in a moving wedding scene.

MR. and MRS. GIBBS are viewing a bit of moonlight. They are played by Dave Burbank and Violet Kilbo.

HERE THE GIBBS AND WEBB FAMILIES are sitting down to their morning meal.

... comes to Vocational

IN THE THIRD ACT we are led to a cemetery on the hill, where many of the townspeople we have come to know so well are patiently and smilingly awaiting not "judgment," but greater understanding. Into their midst is led Emily, a little timid at first, a little wishful to go back to life, to live again with her memories. But she is shown how impossible, how futile it is to return. The past cannot be re-lived. Living people, humans, occupied with their petty occupations and small thoughts, know little of true joy and happiness.

EMIL GUZIK, above, plays the Stage Manager with his pipe and his philosophic air, and his strange "knowingness"; the Stage Manager becomes a man of mystery in the play. Who is he, really?

A Day in the Life of a "Post-Grad"

Mary Dahl, a post graduate, is a good example of a hard-working "Cos" girl. The girl who wishes to enter the profession of cosmetology must have "all-around" qualities. She must, first of all, be a strong, healthy person. She must have a happy disposition, be even-tempered and pleasant in her manners. The good beauty operator enjoys people and likes to be of service to them.

THE "FRESHMAN FOLLIES" was a program produced at various times throughout the school year by all the departments for ninth graders from the various junior high schools. Besides just informing them about the various subjects available at Vocational, the program told of the related subjects, academic subjects, and extra activities open to all students. After the program was over, the Service Club guided the different groups of students around the building.

Related and Academic Classes are important, also.

MR. VOSS'S THIRD HOUR SCIENCE CLASS are shown here. Science is a related subject for many trades such as Architectural Drafting and Pre-Nursing. The class here conducts many interesting experiments.

JUDY RIVET IS GIVING a talk in Mr. Brown's English class. English is an important part of everyone's schedule. Besides teaching English, Mr. Brown is coach for the hockey team.

THIS IS A CLASS of Juniors in Miss Sorum's History class. Here at Vocational, World History, American History, and Modern Problems are required courses.

Around school with the trades—

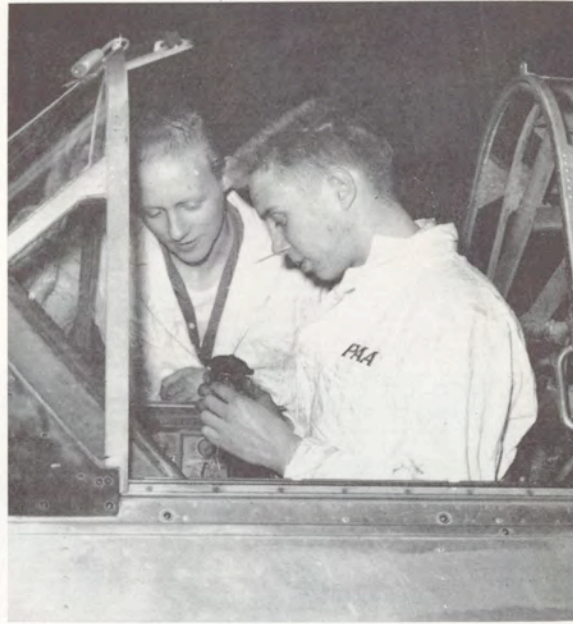

MRS. MARGERITE BELTON is directing Connie Blevins in her second hour class in Power Machines. All types of clothing, from the simplest machine-stitched aprons to women's suits and coats, are made in the Needle Arts course. Many garments made in class are sold in the School Store, managed by Miss Josephine Leachman.

THE WATCHMAKING DEPARTMENT gives the basic fundamentals in one of the oldest trades. Upon completion of this course the student should be thoroughly familiar with the correct methods and procedures of good watchmaking. Bruce Haugen, a Junior, is shown above cutting a winding stem.

THE WELDING COURSE includes gas welding, burning, arc welding, and class work with emphasis upon "Learning by Doing." Students build welded projects and do actual repair work. Welding in the picture above are James Hathaway and Jim Garbett.

AVIATION MECHANICS is a three-year course including training in two divisions: Aircraft Mechanics and Aircraft Engine Mechanics. The course covers the theory and the technical information underlying the operation and repair of aircraft engines, and beginning shop practices. Shown are Chester Olson and Bob Miller working in the cockpit of an airplane.

DURING THE MIDDLE of the evening an announcement was made and the Junior class found out their King and Queen of Hearts were Kathy Kolodjski and Jerry Schwartzrock.

MR. HARRY BROWN acted as M.C. as he does at most of the school parties. His resourcefulness is shown by his ability to get the students interested in games. Some of the difficult games of the night were shaving a balloon and feeding some enemy a bottle of pop with a nipple on the end. Pictured above are Stan Guzik, Mr. Brown, Maynard Westphal, Glenn Byer, and Larry Hansen.

SPORTS

It's here that our Vocational rainbow might seem to wear a little thin -- the purple looks a little lavender, maybe -- but it's here too, that we want to salute our boys, our coaches, and our cheerleaders, who certainly work at rainbow-chasing. Our friend the leprechaun has seemed pretty stingy with his coins in this department, but we hear he tipped his hat to the hockey and wrestling teams.

Homecoming Opens the Sports Season

THE BIG MOMENT ARRIVES! Ken Bishop, left, begins the ceremony by bowing to Princess Kay of the Milky Way. The Princess will stroll around the breathless candidates, gradually unrolling the big scroll which tells all. After long seconds, she stands before . . .

. . . Queen Charlotte and King Clyde. Charlotte laughs nervously as the King's circlet lands on her head, and Clyde seems dazedly unaware that the Queen's tiara rests on his sweating brow. (The picture on the bottom of this page shows a most proper switch!)

The usual restless excitement which pervades Homecoming festivities at any school took hold of Voc. early in the morning of one of the loveliest seasons in the city's history. The golden haze of autumn pervaded even our Concrete Campus, and decorating crews covered cars and auditorium and gyms in masses of signs and crepe paper. The slogan, "Ground the Cardinals" flaunted a defiant challenge to the Enemy who would eventually vanquish us on the football field. But for the moment, we were caught up in the spirit of "Who are we for?" and prepared enthusiastically for the showdown.

But before the "showdown," the coronation ceremonies shown on this page took place in the auditorium. The colored picture of Queen Charlotte and King Clyde on page 61 symbolizes the rainbow of hope which surrounded the team and its prospects for defeating Marshall.

A seeming substance was added to that rainbow of hope, because local sports writers had predicted that the Volts might be an upset team. Halftime found the score 0-0, and in a chilly breeze the band and the flag twirlers shivered their way through their routines, and the royal court paraded through the stadium in their decorated cars.

When the game ended, the score stood 20-0, but the rainbow parade of cars and students came home to Voc. to roost and rest and reminisce about a wonderful day, anyway.

The evening dance was well attended, and many alumni managed to peek in and join the fun.

And so, until another year, the robes of state (tailored, incidentally, by Shirley Kerkela and Judy Simpson) will be laid away in mothballs. . . . But the rainbow? That will never be laid away: its living promise will shine in all the Homecomings to come!

King, Queen, and Court, including Flag and Pom Pon Twirlers, cheerleaders, and royal attendants, assemble on stage in a grand spectacle to watch the entertainment provided by both faculty members and students.

"Be calm, be cool, and be collected!"

MR. CLARENCE BOOTH is the muscleman on the flying trapeze. He is busily enumerating all the dangers he faces while doing his stunt for the King and Queen.

KING CLYDE and Queen Charlotte settle back to enjoy their new sense of power as they prepare to reign over the Homecoming festivities.

QUEEN CHARLOTTE AND KING CLYDE

"Center, End, Tackle, Guard!"

WHO'S GOT THE BALL?

This was a problem at Homecoming; because of the cold weather the ball was fumbled many times.

WHO'S ON THE BOTTOM?

It seems both Marshall and Vocational have just as many men in the pile, but the Volts have more standing.

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

Judging by facial expressions of the crowd and the team, it looks as if Marshall just made mid-field again.

"Here We Go-Hey!"

Although the Volts gave a good showing at the preview against Edison and were predicted to be the upset team this year, they seemed to lose the spark they had in the beginning.

Our hopes vanished as we were defeated by Roosevelt, Henry, Washburn, and Southwest, but on a cold day in October, the team played a terrific first half; however, in the third quarter Marshall found three breaks and we were defeated again. The following games against Central and North ended the same way.

Voc's CHANCES of ever winning a great number of games are usually rated nil by critics. Some of the reasons given are that we are located downtown and therefore don't develop neighborhood loyalty; that we are a trade school; that most of our seniors are on the work co-op program; that our teams lack weight and height. Of course, these are all factors which may affect our success, but we like winning as well as anyone else, and we'll always keep trying, with our coaches, faculty, and student body behind the team.

AL AWALT SUCCESSFULLY CATCHES a pass from Asa Grisgby 15, while Bill Douglas 50, and Bert Pendleton 40, came to aid him; however, Al was stopped by a Southwest player after making only a few yards.

COACH FIEDLER SAID, "The Sophomore Football Team won one, tied one, and lost three. The games that were lost were by a very few points. We tied Marshall but should have won. We didn't have a large squad, but some of the boys should help the varsity next year.

"Voc's Sophomore Basketball Team won two and lost eight. They beat Marshall and Southwest in an overtime, lost to West by one point, and to North by three. We could have done better if we hadn't lost Robert Gross to the Varsity after the season started.

CAGERS CAUGHT OFF-GUARD. With the odds against us, we entered our first game against South at the Armory. This started a trail of eight consecutive losses. The boys played hard and many of the games were close, but lost by fouls. Friday the thirteenth proved to be a bad day for Washburn and the Volts surprised them by taking an early lead and holding it all the way for our first and only victory. We played the next game against Central and we continued losing our games. Washburn got even by beating us in the sub-district play-offs. This was one game where the student body really was out in full color and voice to cheer the team on.

WE WERE SLAUGHTERED at the North game pictured above on this page; the scoreboard below reveals all—all, that is, except the hopes, the fears, the sweat, and the tears. WHILE OUR OTHER TEAMS were getting the tough breaks, the hockey team managed to place eighth in the city conference. Dan Foss was selected to the all-city hockey team, despite the fact that he had to play the whole game on a lower division team. It was Mr. Brown's feeling that Dan was the best all-around hockey player in the city of Minneapolis.

MR. HARRY BROWN, Hockey Coach, Scholar, and Gentleman.

Another outstanding player was Jim Bednarczyk, a brave, courageous goalie who was brilliant in the nets at the end of the season. We lost the first two games by narrow margins, but came back and defeated North. Our shutout game against West is one we will not forget. After scoring in less than half a minute of play, Central came back and tied the game. We lost the remaining games to Washburn and Edison.

SCENE FROM THE PLAYOFF GAME WITH CENTRAL. Imagine the setting! Vocational had not been in the playoffs for years—in fact, this season the Volts were selected by the coaches as a last-place team. Yet here was our team playing Central for a berth in the city playoffs! It was a tense, thrilling, hard-fought battle, for at the end of regulation time the score stood 0-0. Finally after three grueling over-time periods, Central blasted in a goal from ten feet out to win the game. It was a heart-breaking defeat, but what a game!

The Red Cross Benefit Game

The game between the Faculty and the Varsity Teams was given for the benefit of the Red Cross. A large peppy crowd cheered the gallant Faculty and the puffing Varsity. But, naturally, who won? The Faculty Team! Why? Bigger and better lungs? More fat? Less fat? No — just taller.

WE KNOW HOW the Faculty Team won this game. This picture shows them looking droopy; but it was all a big show, just to get the Varsity to feel sorry for them.

MAIN AIM of girls on this page was to provide entertainment during half-time at our games. The casual crowd no doubt appreciates the color and movement of the Twirlers, but is unaware of the hours of practice spent in order to achieve those few moments of entertainment.

This year's co-captains were Barbara Hein, Senior, and Phyllis Boniarczyk, Senior, and they chose the other members of the team, consisting of five Sophomores, nine Juniors, and three Seniors.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Our little leprechaun seems to have an adventurous spirit -- he apparently decided he should try going "through the mill" right along with the Sophomores and Juniors. Why? Well, handing out rewards at the end of the rainbow is pretty nice work, but he wanted to know something about the struggles and fun, and all the defeats, too, that we meet at the beginning of the Rainbow Road. The rainbow still shines up there, but that pot of gold is nowhere in sight. Where will we find the end of our rainbow?

Danny King

READING ACROSS: (1) Looking ahead to a new day. (2) The "vault" yields its "treasure." (3) Beginning to learn the theory and practice of Radio-TV. (4) Stoking up at noon. A man needs fuel! (5) He always meets friends in his Home Room. (6) Leaving another happy day behind. More to come!

Main business during the year is getting acquainted, acquiring the parliamentary know-how necessary for a big class operation in a big school.

Juniors Take Over

JUNIOR SWEETHEART DANCE—Who says the Juniors are superstitious? Evidently they aren't, because Friday the 13th found most of them cavorting on the dance floor in one of the gayest parties they had this year. Mr. Harry Brown emcee'd, and Kathy Kolodjski and Jerry Schwartzrock were crowned Queen and King of Hearts. The little ones are Ginny Gabrowski, sister of Barbara Gabrowski, and Mike Menard, a neighbor of Renae Turnquist. They selected couples for the spotlight dances.

MR. HARRY BROWN, left, and a few of the Juniors are seen here enjoying the fun at the Junior Sweetheart Dance.

In Mr. Carl Nelson's machines class

In Mrs. Huso's typing class.

After a busy morning of classes, Connie willingly eats her lunch at 12:30. Connie, who is also in Mr. Carl Nelson's machines class and Mrs. Eleanor Huso's typing class in the afternoon is seen walking out the door as another day is over.

Finally it's third lunch break.

Her day starts by getting the books for her classes.

Leaving school.

Entering another school day.

Connie Zabloski, a Junior at Vocational, is in Mrs. Katherine Johnson's homeroom and a very active Student Council member. Her day, as anyone's day, begins by climbing all those stairs to her third floor locker.

SENIORS

And now another Senior Class has traveled that Rainbow Bridge, and gone to collect its reward from the leprechaun. We wander toward the skyscrapers, which after all don't frighten us too much, because we've been "downtown" all during our high school years. We go into a town which is changing radically: this is the year of Lower Loop Development and the new Freeway, and the rainbow beckons again. We've already collected a "Senior Coin" from the pot of gold, and who knows how many coins we'll garner, or how many rainbows we'll follow? Sir Leprechaun, we expect to know you pretty well in the future!

Remember . . .

Our Officers and Advisers

THE STUDENTS pictured at left were chosen by the senior class as their officers. They worked well together. The president presided at all senior meetings. The vice president took over when the president was not present. The secretary took the minutes and reported on them. All of the senior dues were collected and recorded by the treasurer.

In many ways, mostly unknown to us, the senior advisers worked for us behind the scenes, and the class appreciated their interest in us.

When We Chose Our Senior Committees . . .

EACH SENIOR HOME ROOM chose students to represent them on the four senior committees.

The Social Committee planned all of the senior parties, including the Banquet and Snow Day.

The committee which decided how much each senior should pay for all of the parties and commencement was the Budget Committee.

When the time came for the choosing of candidates for class officers, the Nominating Committee was called into action. They organized the elections.

The last of these committees was the Senior Announcements Committee. They had a short and sweet job, which consisted of choosing the announcements to be used by the graduating Seniors.

Jim Czaja Heads for That Pot O' Gold

Top to Bottom: Jim Czaja comes hurrying into school as the 8:15 bell rings, but of course he's not the only one who is flirting with the tardy bell . . . At his locker, while he debates which books he should use, Rocky Johnson has already finished this burdensome task and is waiting for him . . . In Architectural Drawing, Mr. Joseph Budish looks on as Jim works . . . A big guy has a big appetite, so Jim loads it on in the lunch line . . . His afternoon is filled with further studies and then he leaves school.

A successful Senior, Jim Czaja is a student in Architectural Drawing. His name is always on the honor roll, and he plans to make a career of architecture, with his eye on St. Thomas College for his next school venture.

... Snow Day ...

KING AND QUEEN of Snow Day were chosen by the senior class. They were Mark Rodenborn and Maureen Emerson.

ON JANUARY 23, the seniors piled into buses and stormed Columbia Park for Snow Day. This day was filled with loads of fun and lots of excitement for everybody who was there.

There was a treasure hunt to get the afternoon started. Then inside the Chalet, there was an air of suspense as the Snow King and Queen were chosen. There were lots of games, dancing and of course some were out sliding on the hills, even though there was no snow. It was a typical cold January day, but the seniors made this a day to be long remembered.

GOING WEST? No! It was just a contest to see who would make the best cowgirls and who would make the best horse.

JUST GETTING to the park, the seniors immediately joined in the treasure hunt.

DRINK UP! This was the chant as Edie Limanen and Sharon Preese fed cokes to two lucky victims.

WHO ARE THESE poor guinea pigs? These lucky boys involuntarily let these senior girls take a try at sewing patches on the seats of their pants.

... The Banquet ...

THERE WAS a short speech given by Jeanne Martin, President of the Senior Class.

"Boy! This is delicious!" was the main remark tossed off at all of the tables as the hungry seniors started out the big night by eating the chicken dinner.

AFTER DINNER the seniors and their dates made a big night of it by dancing to the music of Jerry Dibble and his band until midnight.

IT LOOKS as if Edward Osfar, Vice-President; Betty Hrkal, Secretary; Mrs. McGimpsey and Jeanne Martin, President, are really enjoying their meal.

THEY AREN'T ALONE! At the next table, Mr. Jensen, William Miller, Treasurer; Mrs. Jensen and Mr. McGimpsey are exploring the possibilities of the helpless chicken.

. . . The Senior Meetings In The Auditorium . . .

ONE OF THE NICE THINGS about being a Senior is the chance to have regular senior meetings in the auditorium. At these meetings the students are informed about different activities in which they may participate, and also voice their opinions on any subject they wish.

. . . Graduation—And Rainbow's End! . . .

THERE IS ONE TIME in our lives that shows we have reached one of our very first goals in life and that time is graduation. Graduation is both a happy and sad affair. It is a happy time, because it shows we have completed our twelve years of schooling, and are now ready to try to reach new goals. It is a sad time because now we must leave all our friends, and the easy-going high school days, and take a place out in the world. Graduation is both a challenge and an achievement. The rainbow is, after all, a bridge from one goal to another.

Awards . . .

In the quiet of the morning,
High in the blue grass hills,
The sun rises over the horizon,
And into the valley spills.
The sunlight covers the meadows
Like a bolt of glittering cloth;

It hovers in the shaded glens
With the ease of a misguided moth.
Each morning is a special thrill—
An entirely new surprise;
Nothing in this world can ever compare
With the splendor of the morning sunrise.

—Karen Lawrence, Senior in General Business, whose poem is to be published in the annual ANTHOLOGY OF HIGH SCHOOL POETRY, published by the National Poetry Association. Karen was a student in Mr. Harry Brown's English 12.
