INTRODUCTION

As we entered Vocational, the hand was merely a part of the body. Sophomores come unskilled. As we learn our trade, our inept hands mature; our hopes and dreams begin to materialize. Teachers and counselors play an important role in making our hands the skilled ones of tomorrow. The doubt and instability we felt as underclassmen becomes only a memory.

As we turn the pages of this book years from now, the memories faded with time, will once again be relived. The disappointments won't seem as large or the world as exciting; but the glory of saying that we were trained at Vocational will live in our hearts forever.

ADMINISTRATION

*How do you train him?
There he stands before you,
Clean and lanky,
With a look of bright morning on his face,
Appealing
In the way that morning is,
And youth is,
And the hopefulness of youth.*

*And then you realize
The awful responsibility
That is yours
To train.
To train and build,
And nurture and lead.
You realize how much of business is training,
How much of modern industry is building men,
Inspiring men,
And leading them to achievement.*

*But this young man needs more.
Judgment he needs,
And understanding,
And maturity.*

*For these, he looks to you
And you must give them to him.*

DAY SCHOOL STAFF

Eager hands greet the day's incoming tasks. Our day school staff is the supporting hand of the high school.

Approaching the office, one is met with a scene of desks filled with business. The staff is responsible for keeping track of students and teachers in school. Peeking through the midst of snaking lines and lights, the telephone operator is ever-faithfully on duty handling all calls with the dexterity of a skilled artist. Attendance and enrollment also require the attention of the staff. We extend a grateful hand to our day school staff members.

Mrs. Noreen Stiehm
Administrative Aide

Information Clerk; Mrs. Patricia Torvik, Counselor-Coordinator Clerk; Mrs. Elizabeth Stoppelman, Post High Office; Sandra Spah, M.D.T. Seated: Mrs. Geri Peters, Principal's Secretary & Credit Clerk; Mrs. Noreen Stiehm, Administrative Aide.

Night School Staff: From left to right, Mrs. Melvina Mankowski, Clerk; Mrs. Genevieve Mourer, Clerk; Mr. Armas Peltó, Coordinator, Office & Distributive Ed.; Elizabeth Davis, Coordinator, Adult Home-making; Mr. Louis Derby, Assistant Coordinator, Trade Extension;

Mrs. Erma Andrews; Mr. Dale Davidson, Coordinator, Trade Extension; Mrs. Evelyn Johnson; Miss Annette Hulke; Miss Alyce Cross, Assistant Coordinator, Office and Distributive Education.

NIGHT SCHOOL STAFF

Though seldom noticed by our day school students, the ever-faithful evening school staff is always present in the building. The main purpose of night school is to provide education for over 3,000 people who are unable to attend during the day. The evening school staff is present to keep this program going smoothly.

Vocational offers more than one hundred and fifty courses in the night school program. The curriculum includes trade courses as well as the standard academic program. Vocational plays an around-the-clock role in the city's educational system.

Assistant Principal

SPECIAL SERVICE TEACHERS,

Mrs. Violet Brandhorst: Special Service Teacher; Staff Council; Health Committee.

Miss Margaret Christenson: Special Service Teacher; Pep Club Adviser; Chairman, Health Committee; Staff Council; United Fund and Public Affairs.

A Special Service Teacher offers understanding, kindness, and invaluable counseling throughout the school year. As either a public health nurse or a social worker, she is concerned with the physical and mental health problems of the students in the promotion of acceptable social behavior.

Counseling is the process of helping individuals understand themselves in the light of their abilities, interests, attitudes, strengths, and limitations.

The purpose of counseling in our school is to help pupils make interpretations, choices, and plans leading to socially acceptable and individually satisfying behavior.

Mr. Albert Brekke: Coordinator; Post High; Staff Council; Auditorium Program Committee.

Mr. Michael Davies: Counselor for Project 13; Publicity Committee; Sports Photographer (?).

Mrs. Irene Dwyer: General Business; Office Machines; Stenography; Chairman, Scholarships.

COUNSELORS — COORDINATORS

Mr. Donald Evans: Curriculum and Teacher Training; Chairman, United Fund and Public Affairs Committee; AVA and MVA.

Miss Carol Hauger: Cosmetology; Needle Arts; Sales Training; Tailoring; Awards Committee; Scholarships Committee; Staff Council.

Mr. Royalston Jennings: Auto Mechanics; Machine Shop; Sheet Metal; Electricity; Radio-TV; Scholarships Committee; Health Committee; Staff Council.

Meeting in the Committee Room: From left to right, Mrs. Margaret Orrock; Miss Carol Hauger; Miss Margaret Christenson; Mr. Kenneth Thompson; Mrs. Irene Dwyer; Mr. Royalston Jennings; Mrs. Violet Brandhorst; Mr. Joseph Zetah.

Mrs. Margaret Orrock: Trade Relations; Awards Committee; Work Coordinator, Business Department.

Mr. Reuben Schafer: Counselor/Coordinator, Post High; Post High Student Social Events; Scholarships Committee.

Mr. Kenneth Thompson: Architectural Drafting; Commercial Art; Printing; Metal Arts; Awards Committee; Scholarships Committee; Staff Council.

Mr. Joseph Zetah: Hotel Restaurant; Nursing; Upholstering; Shoe Repair; Cabinetmaking; Patternmaking; Scholarships; Chairman, Craftsman Awards.

The custodians are always ready to give a helping hand. The competent members of the maintenance staff are indispensable in the smooth operation of the school. The efficiency of this group is hampered by no obstacle. The cleanliness and general neatness of the school is an obvious example of the great pains taken to pass the inspection of the many visitors who frequently tour our building. Many of us don't realize the importance of the custodians; but without their assistance, Vocational's reputation would be less shining!

CUSTODIANS

Mr. Stanley Lenart: Chief Engineer.

"I'm even better than the white tornado."

GRAPHIC ARTS

At Vocational, a student can take a course in printing and gain the knowledge and practice he will need for a professional job after high school.

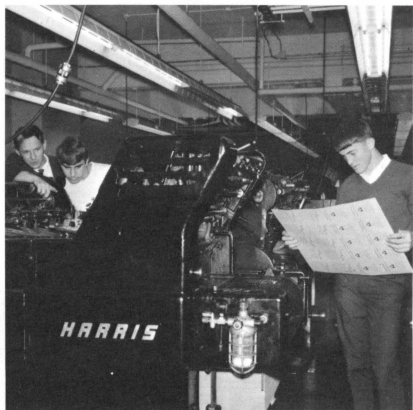

There are two print shops: the Off-Set Shop, where the students first learn basic printing; and the Letter Press, where all the printing for the Minneapolis Public Schools is done.

Mr. Paul Muller: Department Chairman; Junior, Senior, and Post High Lithography; Chairman, Publicity Committee; Staff Council.

Pictured from left to right: Craig Dickey, Mr. Cole, Doug Reaser, Russ Sookson, Dan Smith, Mary Brouillard.

"Mr. Muller, have you seen my notebook?"

Mr. Melvin Sorenson: Printing and Estimating; Publicity Committee; Chess Club.

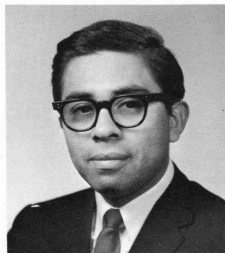

Mr. Harold Tietz: Post High Printing; Publicity Committee; Open House Committee; United Fund & Public Affairs.

Mrs. Martha Trudell: Department Chairman; Copy Preparation; Photography; Staff Council.

Mr. Roman Gomez: Architectural Drawing; Commercial Art; Fashion Drawing.

ART

Careers in commercial art are exciting and challenging. Excitement is generated in ever-changing concepts and techniques of visual communication. The application of these new concepts to the advertising and production needs of the business world is a challenge. The Vocational art program is designed to stimulate young, creative minds and develop technical skills to meet these needs.

Because a sound art education must be built on a good foundation, students are thoroughly trained in the fundamentals of art and advance to the more technical areas of production techniques and processes. To summarize their experiences, commercial art students prepare portfolios of their best work for the next successful step in their careers.

Students in the specialized field of metal arts learn the techniques of soldering, filing, enameling, stone setting, polishing, and numerous skills useful to their chosen profession. A basic background in design is also an essential course for this art. The jewelry and silversmithing produced by the Metal Arts students find a responsive market through the customers in the Corner Cove.

Mr. Gale Greenwood: Commercial Art; Awards Committee; Display Cases; Open House Committee.

Mr. Jules Reed: Metal Arts; Co-Chairman, Social and Flower Committee.

DEPARTMENT

Mr. William Walther: Commercial Art; Layout for Printers.

Under the direction of Mr. Reed, Allen Kobow removes a sliver from his finger.

AUTO MECHANICS

The Auto Mechanics department is backed by the experience and knowledge of trained instructors. With up-to-date facilities and equipment, our students are able to learn more about automobile maintenance and repair.

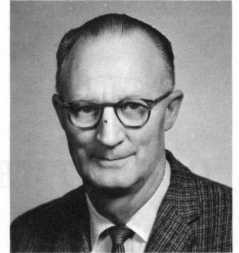

Outside jobs are taken through the upstairs garage. Everyday problems are encountered and solved by working on cars brought in from outside the school.

Mr. Feraz Meyer: Department Chairman, Auto Mechanics; Awards Committee; Staff Council; Post High Student Social Events.

Mr. George Engdahl: Auto Mechanics; Open House Committee.

Mr. James Hinchaw: Auto Electric; Civil Defense.

The torque wrench is "torqueing" to them.

AVIATION MECHANICS

Those magnificent men with their flying machines are a familiar part of Vocational. From 1945 to 1966 Vocational has offered an extensive course in aviation primarily open to postgraduates.

This year, because of the ever-growing demand for aviation mechanics, a new Aeronautical Training Center was erected to offer training in the many phases of aviation.

Two classes of 20 students each began in September and another class began October 31. The enrollment in these classes displays the tremendous opportunities available in the field of aviation.

Mr. Franz Sjowall: Aircraft Power Plants.

Mr. Roger Anderson: Aviation Mechanics.

Mr. Earl Follmuth: Aviation Mechanics.

CABINETMAKING AND PATTERNMAKING

Cabinetmaking is an advanced course in woodworking. The students are trained in hand and machine woodworking. They are also taught drawing and technical information essential to the trade.

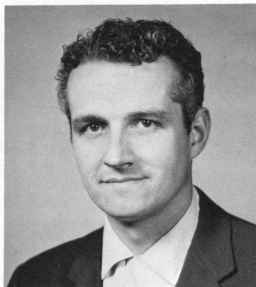

Patternmaking is an advanced trade in woodworking, which creates patterns for molds used in the production of most metal objects. A patternmaker must understand blueprint reading, machine drafting, and foundry molding processes.

Fred Zumerge supervises as Ed Lund, Bob Spotts and Mr. Peyla begin work on a coffee table.

Mr. Erich Koester; Cabinetmaking; Chairman, Open House Committee.

Mr. Orvil Fast; Department Chairman; Patternmaking; Cabinetmaking; Shoe Repair; Upholstery; Home Room Committee; Staff Council.

Mr. John Peyla; Cabinetmaking; Awards Committee; Open House Committee.

The Vocational Shoe Repair Shop is equipped with the most modern machinery. This equipment permits the student to learn the trade under conditions similar to a regular commercial business. This trade also serves the public by repairing and rebuilding shoes.

Upholstering is the process of building and repairing different types of furniture. The student learns the methods of springing, seat, arm and back construction. A thorough knowledge of fabrics is acquired in this course.

SHOE REPAIR AND UPHOLSTERY

Mr. Weisner shows Jim Holden the correct position to set a heel.

Mr. Frederick Rodde; Upholstery; Civil Defense.

Mr. Earl Weisner; Shoe Repair; Civil Defense.

Mrs. Louise Amerman:
Typing.

Mrs. Eleanor Huso:
Department Chairman;
Stenography; Advanced
Typing; Awards Committee;
Auditorium Programs;
National Honor Society
Committee; Commencement.

Mrs. Doris Erickson: Accounting Machines; Social and Flower Committee.

Mrs. Clara Heenan: Stenography;
Bookkeeping; Business
Department Secretary.

BUSINESS

The Business Department at Vocational is a world in itself. Within its boundaries, young people are given opportunities which will be a determining factor in their future lives.

The spotlight is on the skilled hand as it glides smoothly across the shorthand notebook. Opportunities abound for those skilled in stenography. Extensive training in shorthand, typing, and general office procedure provides an excellent background for securing a challenging position.

The steady rhythm of capable fingers across comptometers, 10-key, calculating machines, IBM, and keypunch machines are sure signs of a student in Office Machines. An aptitude for figures is necessary to successfully complete this course.

Mrs. Huso dictates shorthand to Karen Selle and Nancy Brand.

Mr. Randy Holmberg: Business Law;
Business Math; Statistics; Chairman,
Post High Student Social Events.

Mr. Ambrose Zeller: Accounting and Law in Data Processing; Publicity Committee; Tradewind Collections.

Miss Helen Robertson: Business Communications; Advanced Stenography; Advanced Typing; United Fund and Public Affairs; Open House Committee.

DEPARTMENT

Besides learning the operation of these machines, students in this trade also obtain a background necessary for office work.

Versatility is the keynote for the students in General Business. They possess a fluent knowledge of every phase of office procedures. Typing, bookkeeping, and machine operation are some examples of their extensive training.

Although the students in Data Processing are not required to be geniuses, they must have a will to succeed. The present course offered in this area is by far the best in the state. Machine language accompanied by two compiler languages and two assembly languages must be learned to program successfully.

Mr. George Price: Data Processing; Post High Student Social Events.

Mrs. Jean Overn: Office Training; Home Room Committee; Junior Red Cross.

Mr. Zeller instructs Brenda Peterson and Michael Anderson as they add up Tradewind expenses.

Mrs. Lucille Willen: Office Machines; All-School Banking.

COSMETOLOGY AND BARBERING

Miss Muriel Ziegler: Department Chairman;
Post High Cosmetology; Post High Student
Social Events; Staff Council.

The Barbering Department accepts post graduates for nine months of training. After this period of time, students are ready to take the State Board Barbers' Examination which enables them to work in a barber shop as an apprentice for 15 months. Upon completion of this apprenticeship, they take another test to receive a Journeyman's License.

The Cosmetology course requires 1500 hours of training including all phases of hair care and various types of beauty treatments. Upon completion of training, an examination is given by the Minnesota Board of Hairdressing and Beauty Culture.

Mr. Robert Graham: Barbering;
Health Committee.

Miss Charlotte Myers: Cosmetology;
Auditorium Program Committee;
Health Committee.

Mrs. Dorothea Neprude: Cosmetology;
Senior Training Salon; National Honor Society Committee; Awards Committee.

"Straightened, I thought she wanted a permanent!"

Mr. Graham instructs students in how not to clip ears."

NURSING

The Pre-Nursing course is designed to acquaint high school students with the different levels of nursing and to give them an opportunity to practice at the nurses' aid level.

This year's Pre-Nursing students will be the last class to graduate from this course as high school students. Starting next year, this course will be open to post high students only.

The Minneapolis Vocational School of Practical Nursing is the oldest vocational practical nursing program in the United States. The course consists of planned clinical experience in the hospital and related classwork.

Upon completion of the course, a student is qualified to take the State Board Examination to become a licensed practical nurse with many job opportunities.

Mrs. Janet Henriksen: Department Chairman; Practical Nursing; Post High Student Social Events.

Mrs. Myrtle Smith: Practical Nursing.

Miss Geneva Gerischer: Practical Nursing.

Mrs. Patricia Muedeking: Practical Nursing and Related Subjects; Admission Committee of Practical Nursing.

Mrs. Gertrude Sears: Practical Nursing.

Mrs. Alice Thomas: Hospital Station Secretary Course; Junior Red Cross Committee.

ELECTRICITY,

Mr. William Hiltner: Department Chairman; Electric Motor Repair; Appliance Repair; Staff Council; United Fund and Public Affairs; Open House Committee.

Mr. Clifford Lundberg: Electricity; Social and Flower Committee.

Mr. Wendel Nies: Post High Electronics; Appliance Repair; Related Math; Trade and Industrial Relations; Home Room Committee.

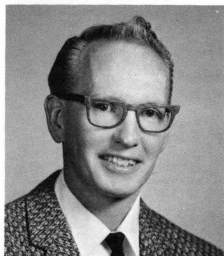

A solid foundation in the fundamentals of electrical and electronics circuitry is established early in the Electronics program. Laboratory-type experiments, using testing instruments, meters, and electronic components are used to familiarize the student with the more advanced phases of Electronics.

The students take over the role of research technicians, who act as industry's engineers, and production workers. Lab reports are made up in order to familiarize the student in communication of data. The student is encouraged to discover and interpret the electronic principles in this way. Students must utilize mathematics in the solution of maintenance, research, designs, and repair problems.

Mr. Almen instructs sophomores John Matlock and Lee Biddle about some shocking facts of electricity.

ELECTRONICS - RADIO - T.V.

Mr. Roy Almen: Radio-TV Electronics; Radio Control; Chairman, Civil Defense.

Mr. Rodney Van Sickle: Department Chairman; Electronics; Civil Defense; Staff Council.

Mr. Robert Larson: Post High Electronics Theory, Lab, and Math; Open House Committee.

The use of an RF Signal Generator is shown here by Mr. Larson.

Mr. Calvin Schaeffer: Radio and Television; Post High Radio-TV; Open House Committee.

MACHINE SHOP, WELDING, SHEET METAL

Mr. Louis Prekker: Department Chairman; Sheet Metal; Staff Council; Craftsman Awards; Assistant Sophomore Adviser.

The best-equipped student machine shop in the city serves us right here at Vocational. Each student spends at least two to three hours in the shop learning on new and exceptionally well-kept equipment.

The use of hand tools and power machinery is taught for a better finished machine product.

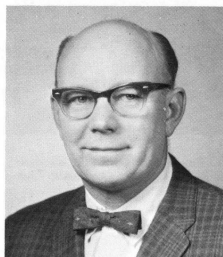

Beginning with small projects, the trainee works his way toward more intricate and precise machinework. We pride ourselves in having employers select choice students from our senior shop graduating class.

Mr. Gene Rome: Welding; Publicity Committee.

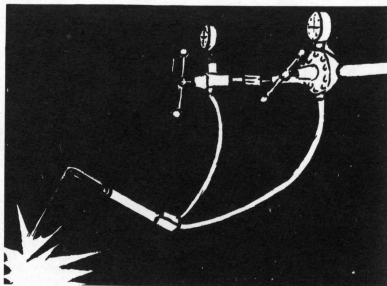

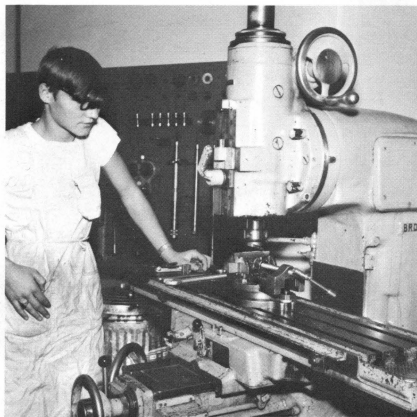

Mr. Gene Sanford: Machine Shop; Craftsman Awards; Athletic Equipment.

Mr. Wallace Skoglund: Machine Shop; Open House Committee.

Now is the time for all good teachers to come to the aid of their students.

MACHINE AND ARCHITECTURAL DRAFTING

"T-square" and "triangle" are common terms in the life of the draftsman. The field of Machine Drafting covers tools and the methods used in drafting machine tools and parts.

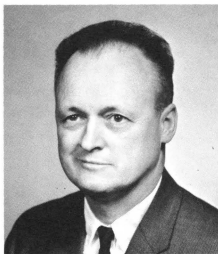

Architectural Drafting includes designing and creating building plans. One must learn of stresses, accepted methods of construction, and the use of symbols representing construction materials. Both courses play an important role in the world of construction and production.

Mr. Dayton Hokenstrom: Department Chairman; Electronic, Electrical, Machine, and Pattern Drafting; Co-Chairman, Open House Committee; Staff Council.

Mr. Joseph Budish: Architectural Drawing, Post High; Related Drawing for Commercial Art; Open House Committee; Golf Coach.

Mr. Howard Fries: Math; Physics; Instrumentation; Health Committee.

Mr. Stanley Frostad: Related Drawing; State and Audio Visual Coordinator; Civil Defense.

Mr. Budish offers assistance to Post Grads John Matthew and Jim Hewitt.

Mr. Eugene Hall: Post High Machine Drafting; United Fund and Public Affairs Committee; Craftsman Awards Committee.

Mr. John Fitchette: Department Chairman; Related Foods; Hotel-Restaurant Training; Post High Student Social Events; Staff Council; Social and Flower Committee.

Mr. Wayne Heikkila: Commercial Foods; Related Foods; Open House Committee.

RESTAURANT TRAINING

Mrs. Alice Clark: Large Quantity Cooking; Social and Flower Committee.

Mrs. Mildred Shepard: Hotel-Restaurant Training; Social and Flower Committee; Honor Society Committee; United Fund and Public Affairs Committee.

COMMERCIAL FOODS

The students in Hotel and Restaurant training learn to prepare and serve food and beverages. The juniors and sophomores are divided up so that half of them work in the students' lunchroom preparing the lunches, and the other half in the Tea Room where they prepare the food for the public.

The seniors and post graduates who are in Mr. Fitchett's Commercial Foods class prepare the lunches at noon in the teachers' lunchroom. Experience gained in preparing large quantities of food, a la carte orders, special orders, cooking, and catering, will give these students the training to get a job in a very competitive field.

Miss Kathleen Cleary: Tea Room; Social and Flower Committee.

Miss Cleary shows Marlys Coleman, Keith Danielson and Pat Baron how to spice up a meat loaf.

"Break that egg yolk and you will flunk!"

The white thumb on the skilled hand is certainly no mistake! It represents the kitchen staff. The student lunchroom and the Tea Room crew are supervised by our efficient kitchen staff. This staff guides its students in many phases of food preparation. The excellent reputation of our Hotel and Restaurant Department has been developed as a result of the valuable contributions of this staff.

Miss Cleary reviews the day's menu with Edna Custer and Edna Lewis.

KITCHEN STAFF

TAILORING, NEEDLE ARTS,

Mr. Henry Arent: Department Chairman; Needle Arts; Pattern Making; Auditorium Program Committee; United Fund and Public Affairs; Commencement Program.

Mrs. Kay Mrachek: Fashion Design; Needle Arts; Publicity Committee.

Mrs. Dena Tarnowski: Needle Arts; Junior Red Cross Committee.

The skills achieved and chances for advancement are great in the field of Needle Arts. Students develop skills which include hand and machine sewing, tailoring, and power machine operation.

This year something new has been added to the Needle Arts course. The new concept is based on fresh ideas in fabric, design, and line. The students will be able to combine their color schemes with their original clothing designs, thereby adding new perspective to the Needle Arts course.

"Now try a straight line!"

"Would you believe you sewed the collar on backwards?"

AND SALES TRAINING

Mrs. Patricia Brunsberg: Salesmanship; Basic Retailing; Store and Retailing Practices; Junior Red Cross Committee; Social and Flower Committee.

Mr. Edward Karbo: Tailoring; Alterations; Pattern Drafting; Repairs; Furs; Pressing; United Fund and Public Affairs; Auditorium Program Committee; Sophomore Adviser.

Mrs. Sophya Reitan: Post High Textiles; High School Textiles; English 10; Auditorium Program Committee.

Retail Training is a trade for students who enjoy meeting the public. Retail students learn how to make records of a purchase or an order, receive and arrange for a payment, wrap purchases, care and display of stock, sell and take inventory. The display techniques used by the students will be enhanced this year through a new design course offered by the Needle Arts Department.

Debbie O'Hara purchases homecoming supplies from Carol Brecht and Sue Stanley.

Mrs. Eleanor Byrne: Department Chairman; English 10 and 12; Auditorium Program Committee; Staff Council.

Mrs. Beverly Jacoby: English 12; Post High Communications; Social and Flower Committee; Home Room Committee; Publicity Committee; Post High Student Social Events.

ENGLISH

"Does my voice sound like that?"

Miss Katherine Murphy: English 10 and 11; Tradewind Adviser; Pep Club Adviser; Auditorium Program Committee; Publicity Committee.

Miss Alice Odegard: English 11; Social and Flower Committee; Tea Room Hostess; Auditorium Program Committee; Commencement Program Committee.

Miss Katherine Rice: English 10 and 12; Home Room Committee.

DEPARTMENT

Mr. Robert Turner: English 12; Drama; Chairman, Auditorium Programs; Commencement, Chairman; National Honor Society Committee.

Mrs. Grace Teeter: English 11 and 12; Craftsman Adviser; Social and Flower, Chairman; Publicity Committee; Awards Committee.

A three-year course in English is offered at Vocational. Sophomores and juniors learn basic English, while a senior may choose from two phases of English.

Seniors in drama workshop plan, write, stage, and present all school programs. Seniors in journalism work on either the Tradewind or the Craftsman. Journalism students learn layout techniques, the use of captions, headlines, and copy preparation.

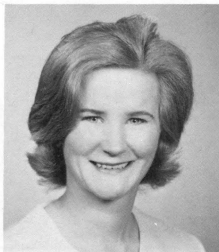

"... but the answer book says ..."

Mr. James Salwasser: English 10; Auditorium Committee; Graduation Committee; Home Room Committee; Hockey Coach; Junior Adviser.

Mrs. Gloria Sawai: English 11.

Mrs. Anita Seleen: Remedial Reading; Social and Flower Committee.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Mrs. Sarah Jane Lemke; Physical Education; GAA; Cheerleaders; Girls' Golf Coach; Chairman, Awards Committee; Senior Adviser.

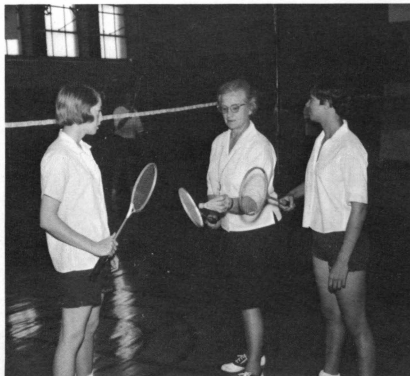

Mr. Thomas Withrow; Physical Education; Basketball Coach.

To most students of Vocational, the one class they will never forget is physical education. Only offered in the sophomore year, this class is a wonderful way for girls and boys to work off "steam."

This year brought something new to the Physical Education Department. Now the sophomores participate in this class five instead of the usual three days a week. This class not only keeps the students physically fit, but it also teaches them good sportsmanship.

Mrs. Lemke instructs two girls in the techniques of badminton.

Are you sure this scale is right?

MATHEMATICS

Mr. Evan Jones: Department Chairman; Mathematics; Algebra; Staff Council.

Mr. James Reinertson: Geometry; Algebra; Trigonometry; Math analysis; Chairman, Home Room Committee; Awards Committee.

With the rapid growth of automation, the need for a greater understanding of mathematics is becoming essential.

From Algebra to Trigonometry, students are challenged with a comprehensive course. They are also taught the fundamental mathematics related to their trade. The contributions of the Mathematics Department provide each student with a knowledge necessary for success in his chosen career.

Mr. Francis Crawford: Mathematics; Post High Algebra; Open House Committee; Usherettes.

Mr. Richard Thompson: Business Math; Modern Algebra; Modern Geometry; Home Room Committee; Cross Country Coach; Track Coach.

"All right, this is fourth grade work!"

SCIENCE

Mr. Richard Chambers: Biology; Department Head; Junior Red Cross; Sophomore Football, Tennis, and Assistant Basketball Coach; Staff Council.

Mr. Arthur Jackson: Related Science; Home Room Committee; Social and Flower Committee; United Fund and Public Affairs Committee.

Mr. John Voss: Chemistry; Physics; Chemistry of Lithography; Swimming, Baseball, and Assistant Football Coach; Awards Committee.

Today, in our age of advanced technology, there is little that is unaffected by the sciences—whether physics, biology, or chemistry. Science is a universal subject which affects every occupational field.

To help the student cope with the problems he will encounter in life and on the job, at least one year of the science most closely related to his trade is required.

The biggest problem with microscopes is eyelashes.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Mr. Gerald Cady: History; Football Coach; Wrestling Coach.

Miss Evelyn Edblom: English; Social Studies; Math; Social and Flower Committee; Chairman, Junior Red Cross; Home Room Committee.

Mr. Vernon Fiedler: History; Trade Relations; Athletic Director.

With the introduction of new means of transportation and communication, it becomes more and more necessary for each citizen to understand the complex world in which he lives. A step in the right direction is learning about the problems, plans, and reactions of people in the past. Through our history course, we gain a knowledge of the past which results in pride in our country.

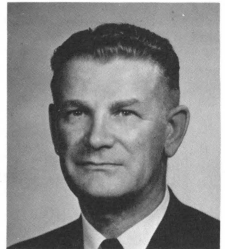

After discovering the successes and failures of our forefathers, we can determine the specific problems we will face in our present and future society by studying the modern problems the world may encounter.

Miss Jean Huntoon: Department Chairman; Modern Problems; Staff Council.

Mr. Milo Sween: U. S. History; United Fund and Public Affairs.

Mr. Arthur Lindman: Modern Problems; Student Council Adviser.

Mr. Chester Janasz: Modern Problems; Assistant Football and Baseball Coach; Publicity.

LIBRARY - ROOM 13

Mrs. Martha Lund: Head Librarian; Staff Council; United Fund and Public Affairs Committee.

In the peaceful atmosphere of the library we find the library staff, Mrs. Lund, Mrs. Roach, and Mrs. Webster, always willing to offer needed assistance. From newspapers to encyclopedias, the student can learn about the world in which he lives. For those leisure hours there are the novels, short stories, and thrillers.

Book Week fills the library with high schoolers and post grads—all anxious to see the many new books on display. At the close of this hectic week, the books are added to the shelves of our library.

Room 13 is a study hall supervised by Mrs. Elsie Kwakkernaat. One day out of the week, English and history classes report to this room. Students watch movies relating to the course and sometimes have the opportunity to work on their assignments.

Mrs. Elsie Kwakkernaat: Choir; Supervised Study.

Mrs. Lucille Roach: Assistant Librarian; Social and Flower Committee.

Mrs. Betty Webster: Clerk.

Room 13 students prepare for another hour of diligent study.

The new books bring smiles to the faces of four Vocational seniors.

MRS. BEA CONLEY

Vocational Faculty Adds to Festivities

Mrs. Conley receives the official plaque from Mr. Hallaway and the late Mr. Richardson.

Mrs. Stiehm presents Mrs. Conley with a corsage.

The Downtown Council selected Mrs. Bea Conley, Vocational's switchboard operator, as the winner of the Courtesy Award for September. Mrs. Conley was chosen for this signal honor because of her dedicated service to the school and her never-failing courtesy to everyone.

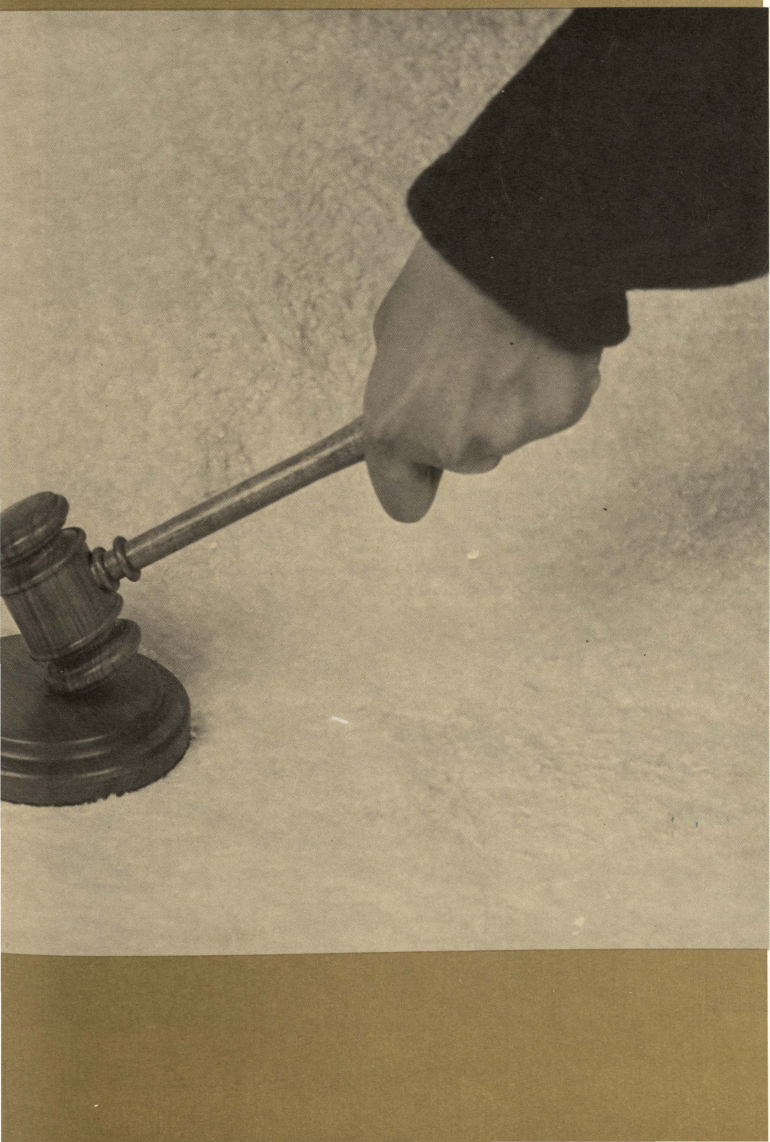

Some members of the faculty salute Mrs. Conley with a song.

ORGANIZATIONS

HONOR SOCIETY

The candles representing education, character, leadership, scholarship, and service are symbolic of the qualities possessed by those who have attained membership in the National Honor Society. During the past three years, these students have contributed to the betterment of the school as well as maintaining above average grades. Members of the National Honor Society are the pride of Vocational.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Any rumble of activity in the school announcing dances such as Homecoming and the Christmas party can no doubt be attributed to the Student Council. This group is composed of 28 students who are elected by the students in the homeroom. Under the fine leadership of the officers, the Student Council has enjoyed a prosperous and rewarding year.

"The Mouse That Roared" is a hilarious and moving story revolving around the Duchess Gloriana's attempt to place Grand Fenwick out of a serious financial deficit.

The United States' generosity in rehabilitating vanquished nations appealed to the Duchy. A declaration of war against the United States, no matter how ridiculous it seemed, was the first step. Through a blunder on the part of Tully Bascom, who patriotically defended the two headed eagle for Gloriana, a small microscopic nation in Europe became the most powerful nation in the world with the acquisition of the lethal Q-bomb.

Although the great powers of the world were pleading with the Duchy to forfeit her right to the Q-bomb, their pleas were unheeded because the Duchy decided to use the Q-bomb as a peace weapon.

Purple feet are in now, you know.

THE MOUSE

Do you realize this thing could blow up any minute?

Long live Duchess Gloriana!

THAT Roared

Here's your sandwich, Professor.

Hey, watch out it's a bomb!

SOPHOMORE VARIETY SHOW

Even though the Sophomores often provide entertainment for the upperclassmen, this year's class did something quite unique. The 1966-67 Sophomore Class starred in a variety show on February 24. The program consisted of ten acts that were enjoyed by all. Congratulations to a talented Sophomore Class!

The Cosettes dance to a "Taste of Honey."

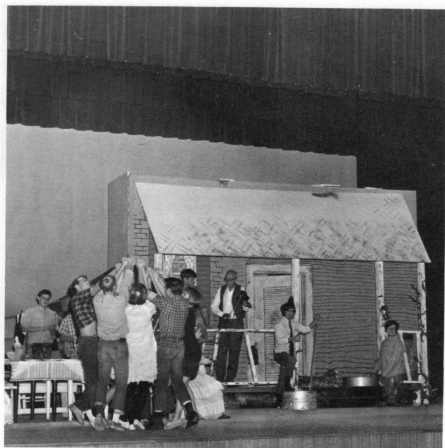

"Don't count your boobies before they're hatched!"

Aren't we "lu-ver-ly."

Uncle Snuffy plays a rollicking chorus of "London Bridge is Falling Down."

DRAMA

Drama is an English workshop available to seniors only. In order to become a member of this class, one must have average or above grades and possess an interest in public speaking.

This class provides the student with knowledge of the history of Drama and procedures in the art of stage direction. As a Drama student, one participates in auditorium programs, plays, and many other activities throughout the year.

This class helps the student acquire poise and self-confidence, both desirable traits needed in all walks of life.

"Slip me another five."

THESPIAN TROUPE

Students interested in participating in and working for the theater have the opportunity to become members of the National Thespians Society. Admission to the Thespians Society is obtained by receiving a total of ten points. These points are gained by serving one hundred hours in the technical production and presentation of a play.

SERVICE CLUB

The keynote for participation in the Service Club is a desire to face the public. Besides ushering at plays and various auditorium programs, this group ushers for the National Historical Society.

STAGE CREW

Under the supervision of Mr. Frostad, the stage crew performs various duties which keep Vocational's "Little Theater" in constant use. Without the stage crew's knowledge of sound, lighting, projection, and the many other technical phases involved in staging a production, Vocational's theater would not operate smoothly.

"There must be some way to turn this on."

Mr. Frostad and Mr. Turner give directions to the stage crew for setting stage scenes.

Student Council Committee for Red Cross: Francine Schildgen, Pat Hale, Rick Monseth, Cindy Parker, Dale Abbe, Brent Spano.

RED CROSS

The Red Cross, the symbol of hope throughout the world, again sponsored a drive at Vocational to help needy children overseas. The drive, nicknamed "Project-Santa Claus," was an overwhelming success because of the all-out effort on the part of all the students at Vocational.

The chest, built by the Cabinetmaking Department, decorated by the Art Department, and filled by contributions from all students, was the center of the drive. Many of the items in the chest were created by the enthusiastic efforts of the Needle Arts classes. The goal-$95--was met and quickly surpassed with a total collection of $116.68-122% of that goal.

DISASTER CORPS

Disaster Corps, a branch of the Red Cross Youth Activities, is composed of students from various Hennepin County high schools. Participation in this organization provides leadership for teenagers in the case of a county-wide emergency.

In the years ahead growth in size as well as in spirit is expected and needed in order to achieve the worthwhile purpose of this organization.

BANKING

On Wednesdays Vocational students have the opportunity to save some of their money for the future. Under the direction of Mrs. Willen, students selected for their accounting skills organize the savings and send it to the bank for safekeeping.

By the end of the year those who have banked regularly have not only benefited by saving their cash, but also are entitled to a free Thrift Week Luncheon.

CHOIR

As early as 7:30 in the morning, the melodious strains of music pervade the halls of Vocational. Under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Kwakkernaat, this ambitious group has spent the year practicing for and presenting numerous programs. Their annual Christmas program, which is presented on the center stairs, highlighted their activities along with trips to various church organizations. Through providing both entertainment and enjoyment, the Choir makes its contribution to school life.

The most popular volumes include: YES I CAN, by Sammy Davis, Jr.; DR. ZILDEN, by Bill W.; SHADOW RAN FAST, by Bill W.

Additions to Men's Staff

There are more men on the staff taking academic credit with the girls. The new additions are Evan Jones, a member of the Math Department. This is due partly to the fact that Evan is taking these courses.

Seniors at UN

There was a mock meeting of the UN this month for high school students. The question to settle was: "Should the United Nations admit Red China or not?" Voc's team of UN delegates represented the United States.

These delegates were Pat Scully, Tom Wessner, John McVay, and Kathy Pumper. They were opposed to the admittance of Red China, and Tom Woessner's speech helped the team to win their standing, reports observers.

Dennis Nyberg and Sandie Olson report seeing over 700 new faces while they attended the MASC Convention (Minnesota Association of Student Councils) in Bemidji from Nov. 3-5. From the sessions and discussion groups they discovered how other schools throughout the state handle their Councils. The students exchanged ideas of how to improve their own Councils.

L. E. Solberg and George Grim were only two of the distinguished speakers on the agenda.

They stayed in the homes of residents of Bemidji, and were the recipients of fine hospitality and kindness through their entire visit.

DO YOU REMEMBER . . .

wet pom poms, soggy crepe paper, cold bleachers, a muddy team, Queen Charlene, King Jeff, the Del Counts, and undampened school spirit?

Homecoming '66 was an event which few will ever forget. As the rain poured down, the festivities went on. Some optimistic students decorated their cars between cloudbursts. Cars decorated with purple and gold streamers soon became cars draped with drenched paper.

After an entertaining program and rousing pep fest, there was the usual mad dash to the cars. The loud and continuous horn honking as the cars lined up and traveled "parade style" to the stadium, announced to downtown Minneapolis that it was Vocational's homecoming, rain or no rain. The Volts were aiming to "shoot up and shut up" West's Cowboys. The team pleased a soaked crowd by beating West 19 to 8.

A victory dance in the girls' gym, with music by the Del Counts, ended a day which will long be remembered.

On your mark, get set, blow!

King Jeff and Queen Charlene were presented with pins designed by students in the Metal Arts Department.

This year's football team proved to be one of the greatest teams Vocational has had since 1941.

As a result of our team's hard work and determination, Vocational ended its season placing third in the city conference.

The 1966 all-city team included two Vocational players, Alfred Burrell and John Young. Verga Whitmore and Dennis Iskierka were chosen as members of the second all-city team.

We are looking forward to another victorious season next year.

As this year's season came to a close, so did the coaching career of Mr. Thomas Withrow.

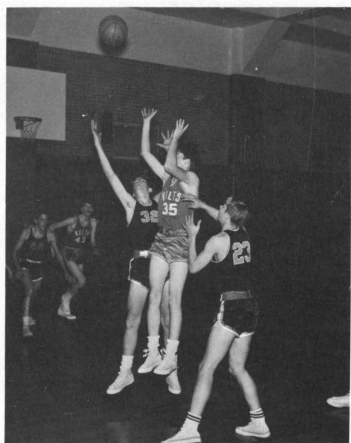

Although the team did not win any trophies or receive much acclaim, the loyalty and sportsmanship shown by the boys is an example of the fine coaching which they have been given.

CAGE THAT BALL, BOYS!

Forming a team of sophomores is difficult because of the needed unity involved. Thru team effort and faithful practice the boys improved 100 per cent since the beginning of the season.

Although their win-loss record does not look too impressive, the sophomore team made up for it in sportsmanship and determination. New prospects for next year's Varsity team were produced thru Mr. Chamber's superior coaching.

SWIMMING

With the city time trials on December 7, another season of swimming begins at Vocational. The meets then begin in January and run through February.

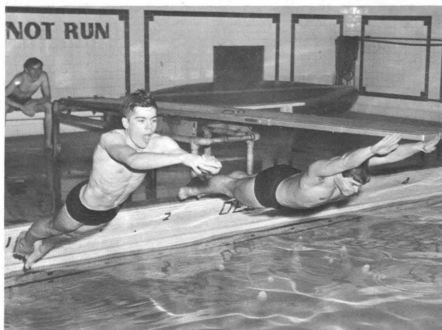

The individual medley is an interesting event, which includes four main racing strokes. These strokes are the butterfly, the back stroke, the breast stroke, and the free style.

The swimming team, although it receives little recognition, plays an important role in Vocational's extracurricular activities.

WRESTLING

Captain, Jeff Bruestle

Participating in a sport such as Wrestling requires both skill and self-determination. The squad is classified under twelve weight categories. The object is to make points for the team by using take downs, escapes, reversals and near falls.

The wrestling team really proved themselves powerful on the mat this year with a record of six wins, three losses, and one tie. Vocational's second place in the District 17 competition is evidence of the team's hard work. Five of our boys went to regionals and came close to going to State.

TRACK

Practice is the magic word in producing a good track team. This year our new coach, Mr. Richard Thompson, had the team begin practice in March. The boys compete in everything from hurdles to shot put.

The boys worked hard this season, so let's congratulate them on a job well done.

This sport requires the use of all the major body muscles and all the stamina one can muster.

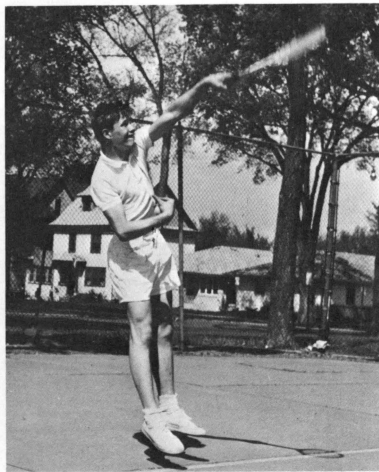

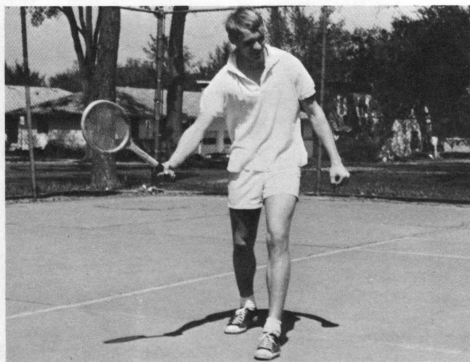

Before most schools even think of spring sports, Mr. Chambers and his team are in the gym practicing hard in foresight of a good season.

Last year our team won its first match in the history of the school. This season the team hopes to improve upon that record.

Through consistent practice the team achieved much success, and Vocational is confident an even better season lies ahead.

Through arduous practice at Columbia Golf Course, the boys participating in this sport prepare themselves to meet other schools. Vocational can be proud of its golf team as it continues to strive for greater achievement.

VOCATIONAL SALUTES MR. TOM WITHROW

Throughout Vocational's 37 year history, Mr. Thomas Withrow has held the position of physical education instructor. During this time he has given his services as a coach and as a teacher. What is more important, he has given his students a part of himself. With his encouragement and training our teams have risen to great heights.

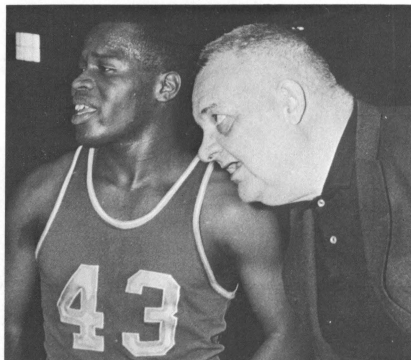

Under his supervision, Vocational's football team was undefeated in 1940 and the city champions in 1941. In 1950, Mr. Withrow ended his coaching of football and continued coaching basketball bringing us four first-place conquests. In 1949 we shared a threeway tie for the District 17 champions, but in 1950 and 1952 we shared the spotlight with no one.

The faculty and student body wish to express their sincere thanks to a dedicated man for all he has given us in his years at Vocational.

GIRLS STATE

Cheryl Baron

BOYS STATE

Phillip Sibinski

Minnesota Girls and Boys State, an American Legion Auxiliary project, is a practical application of Americanism and good citizenship. Its purpose is to provide citizenship training for a selected group of high school students through a week of intensive "living" of government.

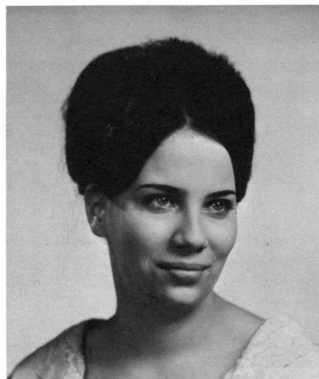

By carrying out the processes of government, students learn the privileges and duties of citizenship, and are encouraged to become leaders of the future.

SENIORS

*We are born with faculties and powers capable of almost anything, such as at least would carry us further than can be easily imagined;
but it is only the exercise of those powers which gives us ability and skill in anything, and leads us toward perfection.*

SENIOR COUNCIL

Do you ever wonder what's new in the senior class? The best way to find out is to ask a member of the Senior Council. Under the guidance of Mrs. Lemke, the Council plans and conducts all senior class activities. Council members are elected by homerooms. They meet during long advisories to take care of class matters. The Council is the hand that molds a year that every Senior will remember forever.

SENIOR SNO- DAY

Queen JoLynne

Sno-Day spelled fun and excitement at Vocational High this year. This annual event, for seniors only, was an eagerly anticipated adventure.

Beginning with a short noisy bus trip to the Columbia Chalet, the afternoon grew progressively more chaotic. The Sno-Day festivities were highlighted by the crowning of Don Dow and JoLynne Harvet as the 1967 Sno-Day royalty.

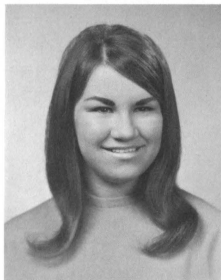

Bumps and bruises did not prevent the seniors from attending the dance that night and swinging to the music of the Time's Children.

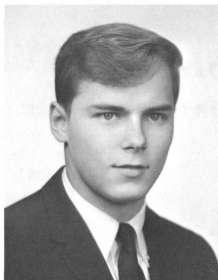

Didn't your mother ever teach you how to walk?

The kids wait "patiently" for the crowning of the King and Queen.

IN MEMORIAM

*When you part from your friend, you grieve not;
For that which you love most in him may be clearer in his absence, as the mountain to the climber is clearer from the plain.*

Kahlil Gibran

Raymond Lindstrom passed away on October 9, 1966, following a brief illness. Raymond was a junior in the cooking department and was also enrolled in English, history, and biology.

We were pleased with Raymond's progress this year and considered him to be a typical Vocational student. He made a strong effort to keep up to date in his assignments and was a willing and cooperative worker. He indicated a pride in and a loyalty to Vocational; and demonstrated by his actions that he was making progress in the changing of his attitude from that of a juvenile to the more mature thinking of an adult. Ray was a conscientious fellow, helpful to his family and working part time to help defray family expenses.

We all extend our deep sympathy to Raymond's mother, his stepfather, his four sisters, and to his many relatives and friends.
